NCAA APPEARANCES

1950

The Cougars roared to a 14-2 start and cruised to a 27-4 mark in the regular season, including a 12-2 mark and first place finish in the Pacific Coast Conference Northern Division. WSC swept a pair of games in Pullman against Stanford to capture the PCC crown and traveled to Omaha, Neb., for the first College World Series at the site. After defeating Tufts in the opener, future Major League pitcher Gene Conley and Rod Keough pitched back-to-back complete game victories over Alabama and Rutgers, respectively. WSC was routed by Texas and the Longhorns defeated Rutgers to set up a winner-take-all game with the Cougars. Despite three hits by shortstop Eddie Coleman, the Cougars were blanked 3-0 and finished national runner-up with a 32-6 record.

1956

After a 6-3 start, Washington State ripped off 15-straight wins and went on to post a 26-6 regular season record. Included in the winning streak were five wins by Jerry Bartow, including four of his school-single season record 10 complete games. The Cougars won the PCC Northern Division with an 11-3 mark and hosted USC with the conference title and NCAA District 8 spot in the CWS on the line. Bartow bested the Trojans on a six-hitter in the opener and Bill Rich, who batted .422 in 90 at bats during the season, drove in all five runs in game two and the Cougars swept the series. In Omaha, Neb., Bradley defeated WSC 4-3 in the opener and New Hampshire handed Ron Aiken his only loss of the season to eliminate the Cougars.

1960

The Cougars won 18 of their first 19 games, including a 16-game winnings streak on their way to posting a 28-4 regular season record. Washington State won the PCC Northern Division with a 9-2 mark and traveled to USC for the NCAA District 8 Playoff. Dick Montee, who had a team high 10 wins during the season, won the first game of the series in relief. The Trojans won the next two games to take the District 8 title by outscoring the Cougars 18-8.

1961

Washington State started off the season 16-4, winning all seven home games during that stretch, and finished 21-8 in the regular season. The Cougars never lost more than two consecutive games during the season. The Cougars won the PCC Northern Division with an 8-4 record and hosted USC in the NCAA District 8 Playoff. USC swept the series with 13-6 and 10-4 victories.

1965

Washington State won 16 of its first 17 outings, including 12-straight to open the season, and rolled to a 29-6 regular season record. The Cougars won the PCC Northern Division at 14-4 and hosted Stanford in the NCAA District 8 Playoff. In the opener against the Indians, Harold Brunstad plated two runs with a double in the eighth to give WSU a 2-1 victory and the Cougars routed Stanford 13-3 in game two to give head coach Bobo Brayton his first trip to the College World Series. In Omaha, Neb., WSU split its first two games, defeating Texas and losing to Ohio State. The Cougars edged Connecticut by a run to set up a rematch with the Buckeyes that turned out to be a classic. Steve Arlin struck out 20 Cougars and Ohio State pushed across an unearned run in the 15th inning for a 1-0 win that ended WSU's season. The Cougars finished fourth in the nation according to Collegiate Baseball.

WASHINGTON STATE IN THE NCAA POSTSEASON

The Cougars are making their 15th appearance in the NCAA Division I Baseball Championship...Washington State has played in four College World Series with its best finish being national runner-up in 1950...Cougars are 25-29 all-time in the NCAA postseason...under the NCAA regional format, WSU is 14-15 in eight regional appearances...here is a look at the Cougars' past NCAA postseason performance.

NCAA APPEARANCES

1966

The Cougars won 16 of their first 19 games on their way to a 33-6-1 record during the regular season. Washington State won the PCC Northern Division with a mark of 15-1 and headed to the NCAA District 8 Playoffs. In the first game against Fresno State, Cougar pitcher Michael Avey posted a win in relief during 5-2, 13-inning victory. After a loss to USC, the Cougars defeated Fresno State 2-1 in 15 innings. A 7-4 loss to USC ended the season.

1975

WSU jumped to a 9-1 start on its way to winning the Pacific-8 Conference. The Cougars traveled to Tempe, Arizona to play in the NCAA Rocky Mountain Regional and lost the opener against Arizona State. After wins against Northern Colorado, Puget Sound and Arizona State, the Sun Devils won a deciding game to earn a spot in the CWS.

1976

The Cougars won their final 10 regular season games to finish 39-12 and win the Pacific-8 Conference with a 16-2 record. Washington State hosted the NCAA West Regional where the Cougars blasted four home runs, including three off future big-league hurler Mike Scott, to defeat Pepperdine in the opener. WSU took two of three games from Cal State Fullerton behind a pair of wins from tournament MVP Bob Sherwood and advanced to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb. At the CWS, Washington State scored in five of the first six innings and defeated Oklahoma in the first round before losing to Arizona State and Maine to end the season 43-15. Future big-league pitcher Eric Wilkins led the Cougars with 10 victories and WSU averaged over seven runs a game on offense.

1977

WSU won 10 of its first 11 and captured the Pac-10 North with a 14-4 record. The Cougars advanced to the NCAA Rocky Mountain Regional where they went 2-2 with wins over Portland State and Cal State Fullerton.

1978

The Cougars won 41 games, including a 15-3 record and first place finish in the Pac-8 North. WSU made its school-record fourth-straight NCAA postseason appearance.

1984

WSU won 41 games and tied for first in the Pac-10 North with a 15-6 record. The Cougars swept three games in the Pac-10 North Tournament before losing two games in the NCAA West II Regional.

1987

Co-captain Jeff Hooper belted 21 home runs to lead WSU to a 44-win season. The Cougars advanced to the NCAA West I Regional where they won two games before a pair of one-run losses ended their season.

1988

John Olerud batted a school-record .464 and was 15-0 on the mound as the Cougars won a school-record 52 games. WSU defeated Santa Clara twice, but one-run losses to USC and host Fresno State at the NCAA West I Regional ended its CWS dream.

1990

WSU won 48 games, including a school-record 19 in conference (tied by the 2009 team). Future big leaguer Scott Hatteberg batted .381.
