Ken Bone Head Coach Second Season Seattle Pacific, 1983

Ken Bone enters his second season as head coach of the Washington State University men's basketball program after returning to the Evergreen State prior to the 2009-10 season. Named the 17th head coach in Cougar basketball history April 6, 2009, Bone spent the previous four years resurrecting the program at Portland State where he led the Vikings to NCAA Tournament appearances the last two seasons.

In his first year at the helm for WSU, Bone led the Cougars to a 16-15 overall mark and 6-12 Pacific-10 Conference record. Under his leadership, sophomore Klay Thompson earned All-Pac-10 First Team honors, while his classmate DeAngelo Casto was named honorable mention all-conference and to the Pac-10 All-Defensive team. Bone's very first recruit, Reggie Moore, whom he signed in the late signing period after being hired, was named to the conference's five-man all-freshman team.

Proving that academics hold an important part of his coaching philosophy, at the conclusion of the season, two Cougars were named to the Pac-10 All-Conference teams, Nikola Koprivica to the first squad and Abe Lodwick to the second.

Prior to his stint at WSU, Bone spent the previous four years as the head coach at Portland State, leading the Vikings to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2007-08 and 2008-09. The Vikings went 23-10 during each of the last two years, the two best seasons in the 48-year history of the program. In his four seasons with the Vikings, Bone posted a 77-49 record, the best winning percentage of any PSU coach since basketball was reinstated in 1996-97 (.611).

Bone led Portland State to its finest season in school history in 2007-08, winning a school-record 23 games en route to the Big Sky Conference regular season and tournament titles and making the school's first appearance in the NCAA Division I Tournament. As a result, Bone earned Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year honors, becoming the first Viking basketball coach to do so.

His encore performance in 2008-09 was equally impressive. The Vikings again won 23 games on their way to a second-place regular season finish in the Big Sky and second-straight conference tournament title. The automatic berth in the NCAA Tournament meant PSU was going dancing for the second time in program history, and the second year in a row, this time as a No. 13 seed. The season included PSU's first win over a ranked opponent when the Vikings upended No. 7 Gonzaga 77-70 in Spokane (Dec. 23, 2008). The Vikings also gave Washington a scare with a one-point, 84-83 loss in Seattle (Dec. 14, 2008).

During his final two seasons at PSU, Bone coached a Big Sky Conference Player and Newcomer of the Year, the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year and six All-Big Sky selections. In his four years, the Vikings had 10 All-Big Sky selections.

No stranger to the Pacific Northwest, Bone holds a 351-181 record in 18 years as a head coach, including 12 seasons at his alma mater, Seattle Pacific University. He registered a 253-97 (.723) record with the Falcons between 1990 and 2002. Bone's SPU teams claimed six outright or shared Pacific West Conference championships and earned eight NCAA playoff appearances. The Falcons made five trips to the NCAA Division II Sweet 16 over a span of eight years, including a semifinal appearance in 2000 that capped a 27-5 season. In 2000, Bone was recognized as both NABC District 8 Coach of the Year and PacWest Conference Co-Coach of the Year.

During Bone's final season at Seattle Pacific, the Falcons posted a 24-5 record, advanced to the second round of the NCAA playoffs and were ranked ninth in the final 2002 poll.

Between his stints at SPU and PSU, Bone spent the 2002-05 seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Washington, playing a major role as the program returned to national prominence.

In 2005 Bone helped direct Washington to the Pacific-10 Conference title as the Huskies earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16. The previous year, Washington had a runner-up finish in the Pac-10 regular-season standings. In 2004 the Huskies advanced to the championship game of the Pac-10 Tournament and competed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1999. That season UW swept the three meetings with highly-ranked Arizona and capped the regular season with a win over No. 1 and undefeated Stanford.

Bone's time spent in Seattle and around the Northwest has made him a seasoned, and renowned, recruiter of the area. During his stint at Washington he helped lure five in-state signees, including All-American Jon Brockman. At PSU, Bone reeled in seven players from Oregon, Washington and British Columbia.

His abilities are already paying dividends for the WSU as four of his first five recruited scholarship student-athletes are in-state players (Reggie Moore, Steven Bjornstad, Patrick Simon and Andre Winston, Jr.).

A Seattle native, Bone graduated from Seattle Pacific in 1983 and received his master's in athletic administration in 1993. He played two seasons (1980-82) at SPU after one-year stints at Shoreline and Edmonds (Wash.) Community Colleges. He is a Shorecrest (Wash.) High School graduate.

Ken and his wife Connie have three daughters, Kendra, Jenae and Chelsea.

Curtis Allen Assistant Coach, Second Season Washington, 2005

Curtis Allen enters his eighth season under the tutelage of Washington State University head coach Ken Bone. The 2010-11 school year marks the second season on the Palouse for Allen and Bone, but the duo has spent the better part of the last decade helping each other succeed. Allen serves as an assistant coach, recruiter, and on-the-floor coach at WSU, as well as coordinating the team's schedule.

Bone served as an assistant coach during Allen's final two seasons as a member of the University of Washington basketball team. A Tacoma, Wash. native, Allen joined Bone's staff at Portland State in 2005, where he served as an assistant coach for the past four seasons. At PSU, Allen was involved with all aspects of coaching on the floor for the Vikings. He primarily worked with the guards and the defensive side of the game, and was heavily involved in recruiting.

In Allen's four seasons at PSU, the Vikings posted a 77-49 record, including the two best seasons in school history. In 2007-08, the Vikings won a school-record 23 games and earned PSU its first berth in the NCAA Division I Tournament. The following season, the Vikings matched the 23 wins and made a second-straight tournament appearance.

The 2008-09 season was highlighted by the school's first win against a ranked opponent when the Vikings defeated No. 7 Gonzaga 77-70 in Spokane.

During Allen's tenure, PSU placed 10 student-athletes on All-Big Sky Conference teams, including three first team selections and the 2008 conference player of the year (Jeremiah Dominguez).

Allen, who played at Washington from 2000-04, spent one year as an assistant varsity coach at University Prep in Seattle. He also coached at Ballard High School during the summer of 2005, participated in UW and Seattle Pacific Basketball camps and operated his own camp at the Ballard Boys and Girls Clubs.

While a member of the Husky basketball team, Allen competed in 117 games, starting 51. He was the most accurate free throw shooter in UW history, making 202-of-233 for a .867 mark. Allen also made 151 career 3-point field goals to rank second all-time. He was eighth all-time in assists (286) and 10th in steals (99). Allen was part of the 2003-04 Husky team that made its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1999.

Allen received a degree in general studies from Washington in 2005. He and his wife Alissa were married in August 2007 and have a son, Trey, born December of 2008.

Jeff Hironaka Assistant Coach, Second Season Eastern Oregon, 1980

Jeff Hironaka enters his 12th season working alongside head coach Ken Bone and his second with the Washington State University men's basketball program in 2010-11. Hironaka serves as an assistant coach, on-the-floor coach and the recruiting coordinator for the Cougars.

Prior to last season, Hironaka spent the previous seven years as the head coach at SPU after taking the reins from Bone before to the 2002-03 season. During his seven year stint as the head coach at SPU, Hironaka compiled a 134-67 record and directed the Falcons into each of the last five NCAA Division II Tournaments.

His 2009 squad advanced to the second round of the tournament after posting a 19-10 record, including an 11-4 conference mark, good for third place in the Great Northwest Athletic Conference. The Falcons also capped a 21-8 campaign in 2008 with a second-round appearance. Hironaka led SPU to back-to-back GNAC titles in 2006 and 2007. The 2006 team won 26 games en route to a national semifinal appearance, matching the best NCAA Tournament performance in school history. Hironaka was also on the staff during the Falcons' previous Final Four run in 2000.
