Wyoming Visits Washington State for CBI Quarterfinals

After claiming its first postseason win since 2003, the University of Wyoming men's basketball team looks to continue that momentum when the Cowboys visit Washington State for the quarterfinals of the CBI presented by Zebra Pen on Monday. The Pokes (21-11) downed feisty North Dakota State, 78-75, at home in the first round last Wednesday, while the Cougars (16-16) earned a dominant 89-75 road win at San Francisco last Tuesday. Monday's tip is set for 8 p.m. MT in Beasley Coliseum in Pullman, Wash.

Fans can follow live stats, live audio and live video of Wyoming's game through the men's basketball Gameday Central page on WyomingAthletics.com. The contest will be broadcast on the radio by the Cowboy Sports Network, but will not be televised.

A Look at the Matchup

The Pokes advanced to the quarterfinals with a tight 78-75 win over North Dakota State last Wednesday in the AA. Wyoming led by as many as 10 points halfway through the second half, but the Bison hung tough to claw back into the game in the final five minutes. NDSU cut the game to a one possession game in the last minute and banked in a three with three seconds left to draw within one, but Cowboy free throws and a missed NDSU three-point attempt sealed the win. Wyoming scored its second-most points of the season, but North Dakota State scored a season-high 75 points for a UW opponent. The Bison were just the second Cowboy foe to score above their season average against the Pokes. Defensive has been solid for Wyoming this season, though, as the Cowboys were sixth in scoring defense (56.1 ppg) in the latest NCAA rankings and 36th in three-point field goal percentage defense (30.4). Both marks rank in the top two of the Mountain West. Offensively, UW is 34th in the NCAA in free throw percentage (74.1), 34th in turnover margin (+2.6) and 40th in turnovers per game (11.8). UW's bench has averaged 16.6 points over the last five games.

Head coach Ken Bone and Washington State earned an 89-75 win at San Francisco in the CBI first round to sit at 16-16 on the season. WSU led by just one at halftime, but quickly opened the advantage to 10 points in the second half and hit free throws down the stretch for the win. Four Cougars scored in double figures, as WSU shot 89.3 percent (25-of-28) for its second-best performance of the season. Washington State finished the Pac-12 regular season at 7-11 for eighth in the league standings, before dropping a 69-64 contest to ninth-seeded Oregon State in the conference tournament first round. The Cougars own one of the better offenses in the Pac-12, as they rank third in the conference and 41st in the nation at 46.7 percent from the field. WSU is second in the Pac 12 in free throw percentage at 71.0, fifth in three-point makes per game at 6.2 and fourth in assists at 14.0. The Cougars average 68.8 points per game for seventh in the league. Defensively, Washington State allows 66.6 points for eighth in the conference. They also allow 31.3 rebounds for third in the Pac-12.

Each Team's Leaders

Redshirt junior forward Leonard Washington continues to play well for the Pokes, with double-doubles in four of the last five contests. The Second Team All-MW honoree ranks in the top 10 of five conference statistical categories to average a team-high 12.9 points and 7.0 rebounds per game. Senior guard Francisco Cruz and redshirt junior guard Luke Martinez are Wyoming's outside threat at 12.3 and 12.1 points, respectively. Cruz ranks third in the MW at 46.2 percent from the floor, while Martinez leads the league and ranks 54th in the nation at 2.6 threes per game. Cruz averages 2.3 assists and Martinez adds 4.0 rebounds. Senior guard JayDee Luster leads the Pokes on both ends of the floor. He was named the MW Defensive Player of the Year and ranks 29th in the nation in assist-turnover ratio at 2.4. Senior center Adam Waddell also excels on the defensive end, drawing 18 charges during MW play, to go with 9.5 points and 3.4 rebounds. Washington posted 22 points and 11 rebounds against NDSU, while Cruz added 14 points and Waddell had 13.

Junior forward Brock Motum is Washington State's offense, as the Pac-12's Most Improved Player and a First-Team selection. He leads the league and ranks 37th in the NCAA at 18.3 points, while also earning 6.5 rebounds and 1.7 assists. He also ranks fifth in the conference and 28th nationally in field goal percentage at 55.3. Motum is complimented by junior guard Reggie Moore, who leads the Pac-12 and is 32nd in the nation at 5.5 assists. His 2.1 assist-turnover ratio is fourth in the league, as he scores 9.4 points. Freshman guard DaVonte Lacy contributes 8.6 points, while senior guard Marcus Capers adds 6.0 points and 5.1 rebounds. Senior forward Abe Lodwick rounds out WSU's probable starters at 5.5 points and 3.7 rebounds. Motum scored 24 points and grabbed seven rebounds against USF.

About the Series

The Cowboys have a 4-1 advantage over the Cougars in the all-time series, but the first three meetings occurred in the 1940s. More recently, Wyoming earned a 49-47 victory over Washington State on Dec. 22, 2004, in Laramie and WSU claimed a 63-47 win in Pullman on Nov. 30, 2005 in the two programs last meeting. Justin Williams led Wyoming with 10 points, 12 rebounds and five blocked shots in that game.

Up Next

A Wyoming win on Monday would put the Cowboys into the CBI semifinals. The teams will be re-bracketed for semifinal round action on Wednesday.

Washington Guides Cowboys Past NDSU, 78-75, in CBI First Round

Redshirt junior forward Leonard Washington posted 22 points and 11 rebounds and the University of Wyoming men's basketball team used late free throws to earn a 78-75 win over North Dakota State in the first round of the CBI presented by Zebra Pen last Wednesday night in the Arena-Auditorium. UW (21-11) allowed its most points this season, but three Cowboys scored in doubles figures to give the Pokes their first postseason win since 2003.

The Cowboys led by as many as 10 points halfway through the second half, but the Bison (17-14) hung tough and clawed back within one at 67-66 with five minutes left. UW extended the lead back to seven with 2:57 to go, but NDSU cut it to a one possession game over the final minute and banked in a three with three seconds left. Redshirt junior Luke Martinez made two free throws on the ensuing UW possession and NDSU's long three-point attempt to tie the game sailed wide.

Washington posted his fourth double-double in UW's last five contests and added two blocks, while senior guard Francisco Cruz scored 15 points and senior center Adam Waddell contributed 13 points and a block. Martinez scored nine points and grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds, while senior guard JayDee Luster handed out six assists.

It was an offensive night for both squads, as Wyoming allowed its most points this season, but scored its second most of the year. The Cowboys hit 53 percent (22-of-41) from the field, including 26 percent (5-of-19) from deep, to 47 percent (27-of-57) and 41 percent (7-of-17) for North Dakota State. UW earned a 34-28 advantage in rebounds, while both teams notched 11 assists.

It was a game of runs through the first half, as the Cowboys led by as many as seven and the Bison fought in front by as much as four. There were six lead changes and four ties in the first half. NDSU started 4-of-6 from the field to go up 9-5 through the first three minutes, but UW used a quick 7-0 spurt thanks to two baskets from Waddell to retake the lead. The Cowboys slowly built their advantage to seven at 20-13 midway through the half.

The squads exchanged baskets over the next few minutes until the Bison crafted a 13-2 run to go back in front 32-28 with 4:28 left. Freshman forward Larry Nance Jr. responded for the Pokes with eight-straight points to push the Pokes in front again and Waddell hit two free throws with 10 seconds left to tie the contest at 37-37 headed in halftime.

The Pokes in The Postseason: The Cowboys are no stranger to postseason play. In fact, the Cowboys have played in the postseason 24 times. They have played in the NCAA Tournament 14 times, the National Invitation Tournament eight times and the College Basketball Invitational twice.

The Pokes have captured one NCAA Championship, during 1942-43. That year, the Pokes were led by head coach Everett Shelton and star players Kenny Sailors and Milo Komenich. Sailors was named the Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Tournament and is currently the oldest living MOP. The 1986-87 season was another special postseason for the Cowboys. Led by the tandem of Fennis Dembo and Eric Leckner, the Cowboys advanced all the way to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. In UW's second round game, the Cowboys beat UCLA and, their star at the time, Reggie Miller. Dembo led all scorers in the game with 41 points. Wyoming's most recent trip to the NCAA tournament saw the Cowboys advance to the Second Round in 2002. In the first round, the 11th seeded Cowboys met Gonzaga, who was ranked sixth in the country at the time. The Cowboys upset the Bulldogs 73-66.

Of Wyoming's eight appearances in the NIT, the Cowboys have advanced to at least the second round four times. Their best NIT run came at the end of the 1985-86 season when the Cowboys advanced to the championship game, which was played at Madison Square Garden. The 2009-10 season marked the Pokes' first appearance in the CBI. For a complete breakdown of Wyoming's postseason history, see page 47 of the notes.

Postseason Progress: Wyoming's 78-75 win over North Dakota State in the CBI's first round last Wednesday gave the Cowboys their first postseason win since 2003. The Pokes advanced to the NIT second round that season with a first round win over Eastern Washington. The victory over the Bison moved UW to 17-28 all-time in 24 postseason appearances, including 1-1 in CBI play.

Seeing Double: Redshirt junior forward Leonard Washington has clearly stepped up his game for the Cowboys down the stretch, including double-doubles in four of the last five games. He posted 15 points and 11 rebounds against Boise State on Feb. 25, followed with 23 and 12 versus TCU on Feb. 28, earned 11 and 10 against UNLV on March 8 and most recently posted 22 and 11 against NDSU last Wednesday. Washington ranks in the top 10 of five MW statistical categories, including leading the conference in field goal percentage (56.6) and blocks (1.2). He ranks fifth in rebounds (7.0), including fourth in defensive rebounds (5.5) and is ninth in scoring (12.9).

At The Line: The Pokes made plenty of trips to the free throw line last Wednesday against the Bison. UW went 29-of-41 (70.7 percent) at the line to set season highs in free throw attempts and makes. NDSU's 28 fouls were the second most by a UW opponent.

Offensive Outbreak: North Dakota State's 75 points were the most Wyoming has allowed this season, but the Cowboys kept pace with their second best offensive showing of the season at 78 points. UW is 12-0 this season when scoring more than 70 points. NDSU also became just the second UW opponent to score above its season scoring average against the Pokes. Wyoming has held 30 of its 32 opponents below their scoring average, including holding nine foes to 20 or more below their average and 23 to 10 or more below. Wyoming's best effort was holding New Mexico to 27 points below its average on Feb. 11

Reeling in the Rebounds: Wyoming doesn't rack up a lot of rebounds on the offensive end, but they certainly don't let opponents either. The Cowboys lead the MW in rebounding defense, allowing opponents just 30.2 boards per game. UW outrebounded NDSU 34-28 last Wednesday for its best rebounding margin since collecting eight more than Air Force on Feb. 15. Wyoming is 11-1 this season when outrebounding its opponent.

Waddell in the CBI: Senior center Adam Waddell made his second appearance in the CBI last Wednesday and collected his second double figure scoring game. He posted 11 points, seven rebounds, two blocks and two steals in UW's 2009 CBI game versus Northeastern and followed with 13 points, two rebounds and one block against NDSU.

A Historic Home Season: The Cowboys have crafted one of the best campaigns in Arena-Auditorium history during 2011-12. UW's 78-75 win over NDSU moved the Pokes to 16-3 at home this season to tie the record for most Double A wins in a season. The mark ties Wyoming's 16 wins during the 1985-86 season. In the 13 years of the MW, UW holds a 145-54 (.728) record in home contests and is 329-116 (.739) overall in the AA.

Luster Approaching Single-Season Assist List....Again: As a sophomore, senior guard JayDee Luster notched 126 assists during the 2009-10 season to tie for 10th on UW's single-season assist list. Now he is approaching the mark again. He has dished out 119 during 2011-12 to average 3.7 per game. For a list of the top 10, check page seven.

Luster A Top Assist Man in MW:

Senior JayDee Luster has been one of the best assist men in the MW over his three-year career at Wyoming. As a junior in 2010-11, he ended the season ranked ninth in the MW in assists per game with 3.43. He also ranked seventh in the league in assists to turnover ratio with a ratio of 1.75 to 1. He dished out 96 assists and committed just 55 turnovers on the season. As a sophomore in 2009-10, Luster ended the season ranked fifth in the MW with 4.3 assists a game.

Blocks for the Big Men: Senior center Adam Waddell and redshirt junior forward Leonard Washington have been a force to deal with inside for the Pokes this season. The duo combined for three blocks against NDSU last Wednesday for the 11th time this season the two have notched at least three in a game. Waddell and Washington currently sit first and third in the MW in blocks, respectively.

Mark It Down for Martinez: One of the best shooters beyond the arc in the Mountain West, redshirt junior guard Luke Martinez has a healthy streak of three-pointers going on. He has knocked home at least one trey in 28 consecutive games for the longest active streak in the conference. Martinez currently ranks first in the MW and 54th in the nation in threes per game at 2.58.

Record Book Update: Seniors Adam Waddell and JayDee Luster continued to make their mark on UW last Wednesday against NDSU. Waddell appeared in his 123rd game as a Cowboy to stay seventh on UW's all-time games played list and posted one block to stay ninth on UW's all-time blocks list with 92. Luster stayed 14th on UW's all-time starts list with 80 and is still eight in all-time assists with 341.

A 20-Win Season: Basketball fans often use the 20-win mark to judge the success of a season, and by those standards the Cowboys have notched a great 2011-12 campaign. UW's 71-59 win over TCU on Feb. 28 gave the Pokes their first 20-win season since a 21-11 mark in 2002-03 and fifth 20-win season since 1990. The Cowboys have accomplished the feat 19 times in their 106-year history.

Luster Headlines Wyoming's All-Mountain West Honorees: Wyoming senior guard JayDee Luster was named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year and two other Cowboys earned All-MW honors, as the conference office released the awards on March 5. Luster also claimed All-Defensive Team and Honorable Mention All-MW in a vote of the league head coaches and media, while redshirt junior forward Leonard Washington was named to the Second Team and senior guard Francisco Cruz was Honorable Mention.

A Bonus From the Bench: After having a rough offensive stretch during the middle of the conference season, the Wyoming bench has played nicely over the last six games. The Cowboys subs are averaging 16.6 points in UW's last six games, including a season-high 34 points against TCU on Feb. 28. The UW bench has outscored the opponent bench twice in the last five games, while UW's 11-5 bench advantage over UNLV on March 8 was just UW's second loss of the season with more bench points (7-2).

Sailors Selected to NCBA Hall of Fame: Kenny Sailors, the inventor of the jump shot, the 1943 National Player of the Year at the University of Wyoming and the oldest living Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Tournament is one of 10 individuals who have been selected to the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame Induction Class of 2012.

Sailors led Wyoming to the 1943 NCAA Championship, while being named the National Player of the Year and the Most Outstanding Player in the `43 NCAA Tournament. He is also credited with creating the jump shot.

Sailors, who turned 91 on Jan. 14, 2012, and his former head coach, Everett Shelton, are the only two representatives from the state of Wyoming in the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame. Shelton was inducted in the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006.

One of the Top Defenses in the Nation: Although Wyoming has slipped in the national rankings because of improved opponents during the conference season, the Cowboys are still forcing opponents off the three-point line and into tough two-point shot attempts. In the last NCAA rankings, UW was sixth in the nation in scoring defense at 56.1 points per game and 36th in three-point field goal percentage defense at 30.8. Both marks rank in the top three of the Mountain West. The Cowboys were the last team in the nation to allow more than 60 points.

Don't Forget About the Offense: Known for its defense first, Wyoming has played some solid ball on the offensive side, as well. The Cowboy offense was 35th in the last NCAA rankings in free throw percentage (74.1), 34th in turnover margin (+2.6) and 40th in turnovers per game (11.8). Four Cowboys reached double figures against UNLV on Feb. 4 for the fourth time UW has accomplished the feat this season and first time all four scored at least 14.

Keeping It Close: The Cowboys suffered their worst loss of the conference season at UNLV on March 3, but it says something about Wyoming that the margin of defeat was only 11 points. The Pokes lost by more than 20 points four times during the 2010-11 conference season. In 2011-12, all eight of UW's MW losses have been by less than 11 points and in six of those eight losses the Pokes were within two possessions (six points) with less than five minutes to go in the game.

Taking Care of the Ball: Wyoming has really taken care of the ball this season, including committing the fewest turnovers by a team in a single game this season with one against TCU on Feb. 28. The previous team to commit no more than one turnover in a game was Bucknell on Jan. 13, 2010, against American. The Cowboys have committed less than 10 turnovers in 11 contests during 2011-12 to rank 40th in the nation at 11.8 per game. UW also claimed a season-high 18 assists versus the Horned Frogs and currently lead the MW in turnover margin at +2.6.

Luster A Leading Man: Senior JayDee Luster has been a top performer for Wyoming all season, but he put forth his best effort of the season against TCU on Feb. 28. Luster notched a season-high eight assists with no turnovers and two steals. He currently has 119 assists and 50 turnovers to lead the MW and rank 29th in the nation in assist-turnover ratio.

Big Crowds for the Cowboys: Wyoming's crowd of 5,174 on Feb. 28 against TCU was UW's sixth crowd of more than 5,000 during the conference season. The Cowboys are averaging 5,078 fans per home game this season, their best since the 2008-09 season.

Assists for Paco: Known primarily as a shooter, Francisco Cruz has shown he can create shots for his teammates recently as well. Cruz tied a season high with five assists against TCU on Feb. 28. Cruz currently ranks second on the team at 2.3 assists per game, while ranking third in the MW field goal percentage (46.2) and seventh in minutes (32.3).

More on the Minutes: Senior center Adam Waddell battled several nagging injuries that forced him to miss time last season, but he has been a rock for UW this season. Waddell averaged 17.7 minutes per game with 23 appearances and three starts in 2010-11, but is putting in more than 27 minutes per contest this season and has started all 30 games. He logged a career-high 42 minutes at San Diego State on Feb. 22.

It's All About Percentages: Wyoming's lock-down defense has led to some impressive numbers. The Pokes have held 14 of their 31 opponents below 40 percent from the field, while UW has held 15 foes below 30 percent beyond the arc this year. On Feb. 28, Wyoming limited TCU to 27 percent (6-of-22) from deep.

A Lot of Talent and a Little Luck: Forward Larry Nance Jr. has proven he's a talented player, coming off the bench as UW's sixth man as a true freshman, but a little luck propelled him to a career-high nine points at San Diego State on Feb. 22. Nance banked in a three with one second left on the shot clock for UW's first triple of the game and went on tie a career high with three field goals. His previous high was eight on three different occasions. Nance also pulled down four rebounds in a career-high 31 minutes of action and is currently the second-leading freshman rebounder in the MW at 4.0 per game.

Winning the Stat Battle: Wyoming has won several statistical battles this season en route to to its winning record. The Cowboys are 19-1 when they have more assists and 20-2 when they shoot better from the field, including 17-3 when shooting better from three. UW is also 11-1 when outrebounding its foe and 17-2 when committing fewer fouls.

Martinez's Thefts: One of the top three-point shooters in the MW, redshirt junior guard Luke Martinez has equal value on the defensive end also. Martinez tied a season high with five steals at New Mexico on Feb. 11, a feat he also accomplished in UW's 65-54 win at Colorado on Dec. 9. He has notched 16 games with more than two steals this season, including six with more than three. He currently ranks fourth in the MW at 1.7 per game.

Head Coach Larry Shyatt

On Thursday, March 31, Larry Shyatt was announced as the 21st head basketball coach in Wyoming Cowboy history by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman.

Shyatt, a proven winner at the highest level of college basketball, comes to Wyoming from Florida, where he was the associate head coach of the Gators. This marks Shyatt's second stint at Wyoming, as he was formerly the head coach of the Cowboys in 1997-98.

Shyatt returns to Wyoming after being a part of the University of Florida coaching staff for the past seven seasons, joining the Gators' staff on May 10, 2004. During his time at Florida, the Gators won the 2006 and 2007 NCAA National Championships, won Southeastern Conference (SEC) tournament championships in 2005, 2006 and 2007 and won SEC regular-season titles in 2007 and 2011. In 2011, the Gators advanced to the "Elite Eight" of the NCAA Tournament. When Florida won back-to-back NCAA titles in 2006 and 2007, it became only the seventh men's basketball program in college basketball history to win back-to-back NCAA Championships. Over Shyatt's seven seasons in Gainesville, the Gators posted a record of 191-63 (.752), which was the best record in the SEC during that span of time, and they averaged 27 wins per season.

In his one season guiding the Wyoming basketball program in 1997-98, Shyatt took over a team that was 12-16 the year prior to his arrival and guided the Cowboys to a 19-9 (.678) record and an appearance in the 1998 National Invitation Tournament (NIT). Also during the 1997-98 campaign, Shyatt's Cowboys defeated eventual NCAA National Runner-up Utah by a score of 62-56 in Laramie. The Cowboys, who had been picked fifth out of eight teams in the Mountain Division of the Western Athletic Conference preseason poll, finished the season in third place behind Utah and New Mexico, posting a 9-5 conference mark. Wyoming also defeated the Lobos in Laramie that season. Shyatt was named the WAC Mountain Division Coach of the Year in 1998, and was selected by his peers as the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 13 Coach of Year. His `97-'98 Cowboys posted a 13-2 (.867) home record and were 6-1 (.857) in conference home games.

Shyatt's enthusiasm and involvement with Cowboy fans and the UW student body, combined with his team's blue-collar style of play, resulted in the Pokes attracting an average of 7,084 fans to home games. Included in that attendance were two crowds of over 10.000 -- 11.014 versus Colorado State and 12.201 against BYU.

Known as one of the outstanding basketball minds in the country, Shyatt was named by Basketball Times as the top assistant coach in the nation four different times. The respect he has among his college coaching peers resulted in him being the first assistant coach to be named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Board of Directors from 1987-90. Shyatt also has an outstanding reputation as a recruiter. During his time at Wyoming, the student-athletes he and his Wyoming staff brought to Laramie included: Anthony Blakes (NABC Second Team All-District, Second Team All-WAC), Josh Davis (Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American, NABC First Team All-District, First Team All-WAC), LeDarion Jones (First Team Academic All-District VII), Brett McFall (UW Career Top 10 in 3-Point FGs and Assists), Chris McMillian (UW Career Top 10 in Assists and Steals) and Ugo Udezue (Second Team All-WAC). He also coached two players at Wyoming who earned individual honors in Jeron Roberts (NABC Second Team All-District, First Team All-WAC) and Gregg Sawyer (Second Team All-WAC).

During his 35 years as a college coach, Shyatt has been a part of 22 teams that earned postseason bids. Of those 22 postseason teams, 10 made NCAA Tournament appearances, with four advancing to the "Sweet 16", three to the "Elite Eight" and two to the "Final Four". He coached 12 teams to National Invitation Tournament (NIT) appearances. Three of those NIT teams advanced to the semifinals at Madison Square Garden in New York City, and one played in the NIT Championship Game.

Between his time at Wyoming and Florida, Shyatt was the head coach at Clemson University for five seasons from 1998-2003. His first season as head coach of the Tigers, Shyatt led them to a 20-win season (20-15). The Tigers advanced to the 1999 NIT Championship Game before losing by one point, 60-61, to California. With his 20 wins that season, Shyatt became only the fourth first-year coach in Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) history to guide his team to a 20-win season. Also during his time as head coach at Clemson, the 2000-01 team set a school record for three-point field goals in a season and recorded one of the biggest wins in school history with a 75-65 win over No. 1 ranked North Carolina on Feb. 18, 2001, breaking an 18-game losing streak to the Tar Heels. His record at Clemson was 70-84.

Shyatt served as the Associate Head Coach at Clemson for three seasons from 1994-1997 under now University of Texas head coach Rick Barnes. His final season at Clemson, he helped the Tigers advance to the "Sweet 16" of the NCAA Tournament, before losing in the NCAA Regional Semifinals to Minnesota, 84-90, in double overtime. Clemson also earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament the year prior (1995-96). During those three seasons, the Tigers posted a record of 56-34.

Before moving to Clemson, Shyatt was an assistant on Barnes' staff at Providence College for six seasons from 1988-1994. Providence advanced to postseason play five of those six seasons, including three NCAA and two NIT bids. The 1992-93 squad earned its way to the NIT Semifinals in New York City. The 1993-94 Friars captured the Big East Conference Tournament Championship, on way to a 20-10 record and an NCAA Tournament berth. Providence's record during that six-year period was 108-76.

Shyatt also brings with him experience coaching in the West. In addition to serving as head coach at Wyoming, Shyatt was an assistant coach at Utah (1975-76) and associate head coach at New Mexico (1982-1988). The Utes posted a 19-8 (.704) record in '75-'76 and tied for second in the WAC. The Lobos won 20 games three times during the six-year span Shyatt coached in Albuquerque, and appeared in five consecutive NITs from 1984-88. Between his time at Utah and New Mexico, Shyatt returned to his hometown of Cleveland, Ohio, serving as an assistant coach at Cleveland State for six seasons (1976-1982). Over his final three seasons at Cleveland State, he helped the Vikings win 17, 18 and 17 games, respectively.

After playing college basketball at The College of Wooster for two years (1970 and 71), Shyatt had already made up his mind that coaching was the career he wanted to pursue. He became a student assistant coach at Wooster, and upon receiving his bachelor's degree in physical education, he was hired as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Akron. He served as a graduate assistant coach at Akron for two seasons (1973-74 and 1974-75) while completing his master's degree in secondary education. The next year he earned his first full-time coaching position at Utah.

Shyatt (April 8, 1951) will be 60 years old when the 2011-12 season begins. He and his wife, the former Pam Moore, have three sons -- Jeremy (May 15, 1981), Geoffrey (Jan. 5, 1984) and Philip (May 11, 1986). Jeremy, who will serve as an assistant coach for his Dad at Wyoming, completed his second season as an assistant coach at the University of North Florida under head coach and former Wyoming assistant coach Matthew Driscoll in 2011. Prior to coaching at North Florida, Jeremy was the Director of Basketball Operations at VCU (Virginia Commonwealth University), and before that held the same position at East Carolina University.

Associate Head Coach Scott Duncan

When new University of Wyoming head basketball coach Larry Shyatt began assembling his coaching staff, he didn't have to look far to find his associate head coach. He hired one of his oldest friends, Scott Duncan. Duncan comes to Wyoming from UCLA, where he had served as an assistant coach for the past four seasons.

Duncan, who was also an assistant coach at Wyoming with Shyatt during the 1997-98 season, has more than 33 years of experience as a major college basketball assistant coach. A Columbus, Ohio native, he has been associated with Division I programs that have advanced to postseason play in 18 of the last 24 seasons.

Duncan comes to Wyoming from UCLA, where he served as an assistant coach for the Bruins for the last four seasons. During his four years at UCLA, the Bruins went a combined 98-42 overall and 50-22 in Pac-10 Conference play. The Bruins advanced to three NCAA Tournaments--reaching the Final Four in 2008, the Second Round in 2009 and the Sweet 16 in 2011. The 2007-08 Bruins won the Pac-10 regular-season championship, as well as the league's postseason tournament.

Duncan continued to prove himself as a top national recruiter while at UCLA. The 2010 UCLA recruiting class was ranked No. 15 nationally by ESPN.com and the 2009 Bruins' class was ranked No. 4 by Scout.com.

Prior to making the move to UCLA, Duncan was an assistant coach at Oregon for seven years (2000-07). During his time in Eugene, the Ducks won three Pac-10 titles (the 2002 regular-season championship and the 2003 and 2007 tournament championships). Oregon also reached the "Elite Eight" of the NCAA Tournament twice (2002 and 2007).

Duncan proved himself as a terrific recruiter at Oregon, highlighted by the Ducks' 2004 recruiting class that featured all four freshmen who were ranked among the nation's top-75 players in the country.

Duncan has been honored numerous times as one of the top assistant coaches and recruiters in the country. He was recently named the eighth-best assistant in the country by Hoop Scoop and one of the nation's top-25 recruiters by Rivals.com. In 2001, he was selected as both one of the hardest-working assistant coaches and best recruiters in the nation in a pair of surveys compiled by Rivals.com's Dave Telep. In his coaching career, Duncan has helped attract recruiting classes that have been recognized among the top 25 in the country in 10 of the last 13 years.

Duncan was born on Sept. 18, 1955 in Cleveland, Ohio. He graduated from the College of Wooster (Wooster, Ohio) in 1978 with a degree in physical education and economics. He was a three-year letterman in basketball for the Fighting Scots.

To say the least, new University of Wyoming head basketball coach Larry Shyatt has a great deal of experience with assistant coach Jeremy Shyatt—he is Larry's oldest son.

Jeremy Shyatt, the oldest of Pam and Larry's three sons, comes to Wyoming from North Florida where he has spent the past two seasons as an assistant coach. At North Florida, Shyatt assisted head coach Matthew Driscoll, who was an assistant at Wyoming during the 1997-98 season under Shyatt.

Over the past two seasons at North Florida, Shyatt helped build a resurgence of the Ospreys' basketball program. Over the past two years, North Florida won 28 games. In the four years prior to that, they won just 22 total games.

This past season, UNF finished 15-19 overall and 10-10 in the Atlantic Sun Conference. The 15 wins matched the most in school history and the 10 conference wins also set a school record. The Ospreys fell one game short of the NCAA Tournament, losing to Belmont in the Atlantic Sun Championship game. It marked the first time that North Florida had played in a conference championship game. In addition, North Florida won the Mayan Division of the 2010 Cancun Challenge. Prior to their trip to Cancun, the Ospreys traveled to Wyoming and beat the Cowboys in the Arena-Auditorium.

At UNF, Shyatt was involved in many facets of the program including on-court coaching, recruiting, opponent scouting, team academic progress, housing, camps, skill development and was the team's video coordinator. He helped design the team's basketball locker room, and oversaw their Nike account and student-managers.

Prior to taking the job at UNF, Shyatt spent two seasons at Virginia Commonwealth University as the team's Director of Basketball Operations. During his stint at VCU, the Rams won two regular-season conference championships, advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2009 and earned an NIT berth in 2008. He helped coach Eric Maynor, the 20th overall selection in the 2009 NBA draft and Larry Sanders, the 15th overall selection in the 2010 NBA draft. Shyatt held the same Director of Basketball Operations title at East Carolina University from 2005-07.

Shyatt was born on May 15, 1981 in Cleveland, Ohio. He is the oldest of three children to Pam and Larry. He has two younger brothers, Geoffrey and Philip.

Allen Edwards was named an Assistant Coach for the Wyoming Cowboy basketball program on April 18, 2011. Edwards has tremendous college basketball experience, as he played in three Final Fours at Kentucky and has reached the NCAA Tournament seven times as either a player or assistant coach. He has spent the past nine seasons as a college basketball coach.

Edwards comes to Wyoming from Western Kentucky University, where he spent the 2010-11 season as an assistant coach. The Hilltoppers finished 16-16 overall and 8-8 in the Sun Belt Conference. They won a pair of conference tournament games before losing to North Texas in the semifinals. He coached a pair of First Team All-Sun Belt performers in Sergio Kerusch and Steffphon Pettigrew. Each player was also recognized by the National Association of Basketball Coaches as members of the All-District 24 team. Pettigrew was named the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year by CollegeInsider.com.

Edwards enjoyed a tremendous playing career at Kentucky (1995-98), where he played three seasons under Rick Pitino and one under Tubby Smith. The Wildcats advanced to three straight Final Fours during Edwards' sophomore, junior and senior seasons. They won the national championship in both 1996 and 1998. During his freshman season, Kentucky advanced to the Elite Eight.

In his time in Lexington, Kent., the Wildcats compiled a record of 132-16 and won three Southeastern Conference titles. Edwards averaged 9.2 points, 3.3 assists and 3.3 rebounds a game as a senior and 8.6 points as a junior.

Following his career at Kentucky, Edwards played in both the CBA and the IBL. He returned to Kentucky for the 2002-03 season and completed his degree in sociology while serving as a special assistant to head coach Tubby Smith. The Wildcats finished 16-0 in the SEC that season and advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

Edwards is a native of Miami, Fla., and was Florida's Mr. Basketball during his senior season at Miami Senior High School. Edwards and his wife LaTanya have a daughter, Mai'a (10), and a son, Jaxson (3).

He began the year by being named a team captain in May of 2009 before ever playing a game at UW. Luster was selected as the Pokes' starting point guard and responded with one of the best assist seasons in Wyoming history. He dished out 126 assists on the year, which matches the 10th most in a single season in school history. He ended the season with a 4.3 assists per game average, which was the fifth best in the MWC. He dished out 11 assists in UW's win over Peru State, which matches the fifth most in a single game in school history. He had nine assists or more in three different games.

Luster's best game of the season came in UW's 17-point come-from-behind win over San Diego State, his hometown school. He scored a career high 14 points (13 came in the second half) and had six assists in the win. He keyed the improbable comeback by knocking down three three pointers in the final 2:27, including the game winner with six seconds left.

Other great games for Luster included a then career high 13 points against Colorado State on Jan. 6, nine assists against New Mexico on Jan. 16 and nine points, nine assists, five steals and four rebounds against Pepperdine on Nov. 29. He had three perfect games--a game in which he hands out numerous assists and does not commit a turnover. Those perfect games included four assists and zero turnovers against CSU. 11 assists and no turnovers against Peru State and six assists and no turnovers against South Dakota. Defensively, Luster averaged 1.2 steals a game and racked up two five-steal 2008-09: After transferring to Wyoming from New Mexico State University, Luster had to sit out of competition during the 2008-09 season to satisfy NCAA transfer rules. He used his redshirt year and therefore did not lose a year of eligibility. He was able to practice with the Cowboys and participate in virtually all team activities, with the exception of games. He also led Wyoming's scout team in practice and was able to go against former Cowboy Brandon Ewing every day.

Before Wyoming: Luster, a native of San Diego, Calif., transferred to UW from New Mexico State where he spent 2007-08. In his only season with the Aggies, Luster appeared in 27 games as a true freshman. On the year, he shot 40 percent from the field while dishing out 30 assists and recording nine steals.

Luster had a tremendous high school career at Hoover High School in San Diego, Calif., where he played for coach Ollie Goulston.

Personal: Luster was born on Jan. 14, 1989 in San Diego, Calif. He is the son of Laini Patton and has a younger sister. He is majoring in social science.

#11 Afam Muojeke

Guard/Forward 6-8 210 Senior Jamaica, Queens, N.Y. (Genesis One Prep, Miss.)

Pronunciation: uh-FAHM moo-JEK-ee

- Muojeke had surgery on his left knee on Jan. 30 and will miss at least a month.
- Posted a season-high nine points versus Maryland Eastern Shore during a seasonhigh 13 minutes of action.
- Muojeke made his return to the Cowboy lineup in the season opener for this first time since injuring his knee on Jan. 4, 2011. He scored two points and collected four steals 2010-11: Muojeke began the 2010-11 season on the path to recovery from a torn patellar tendon in his left knee, an injury that ended his sophomore season prematurely. After spending the summer of 2010 rehabbing, he was healthy enough to begin his junior season with his teammates. He played in nine of Wyoming's first 10 games and contributed in each of those games. He then missed three consecutive games leading up to the Christmas break to give his knee some extra rest. He returned for the final non-conference game of the season as well as UW's first MW game at Colorado State on Jan. 4. After knocking down three three pointers in the first half, his knee swelled. That was the last game he would play all season as it was discovered he tore the meniscus in his left knee and had to undergo surgery.

Prior to the injury, Muojeke played in 11 games with four starts. He averaged 7.7 points and 2.4 rebounds a game. He had three double-figure scoring games—14 vs. Kean (Nov.13), 14 at South Dakota (Dec. 1) and 10 vs. Indiana State (Dec. 4).

2009-10: Muojeke was enjoying a very good sophomore season, ranking second in the MW in scoring with 17.9 points per game, until the Cowboys traveled to BYU on Jan. 20. Just eight minutes into the game, Muojeke ruptured the patellar tendon in his left knee. He had surgery on the knee on Jan. 27 and missed the final 12 games of the season.

Muojeke's season came to an end with him averaging 16.8 points, 3.9 rebounds, 1.6 steals and 1.4 assists per game. He scored in double figures in 13 of 16 games and reached at least 15 points in all 13 of those games. He scored a season-best 30 points in UW's win over San Diego State, missing his career high by just one point. In that game, he helped the Cowboys come back from a 17-point deficit by scoring 12 points in the final 5:11 of the game. His best shooting game of the season came against South Dakota, as he hit a career high five three pointers. He had a career high five steals against Adams State.

Muojeke reached the 500-point plateau for his young career against Boise State. He reached 500 points in just 36 games and ended his sophomore season with 723 career points. Prior to his season-ending injury, Muojeke missed three games early in the season with a sore knee--vs. Monmouth, Pepperdine and Loyola Marymount. Those were the first missed games of his career.

2008-09: Muojeke had a tremendous freshman season, which was highlighted by his selection as the MW's Freshman of the Year (which was voted on by the league's head coaches and media members). He was also selected as an Honorable Mention All-Freshman by Collegehoops.net, becoming one of only 34 freshman in the nation to be recognized. Finally, he was named an All-Freshman by Rivals.com for all conferences outside the ACC, Big East, Big Ten, Big XII, Pac 10 and SEC.

Muojeke was the top freshman in the MWC in both scoring and r game. Those were the 12th and 10th best overall averages in the MWC. By scoring 454 points on the season, Muojeke turned in the best scoring season by a freshman in MWC history. He broke his teammate Brandon Ewing's record of 420 points, which was set during the freshman in MWC history. Muojeke's rebounding drastically improved 2005-06 season. Muojeke's 175 rebounds were the seventh most by a over the final 14 games of the season, as he pulled down 98 rebounds for an average of 7.0 per game during that stretch. In UW's previous 19 games, Muojeke had 77 rebounds for an average of 4.1.

In the Cowboys' home win over Air Force, Muojeke recorded his first career double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds. In UW's home win over Colorado State, Muojeke had the second best scoring performance of his career with 25. He also blocked a career high two shots. He set the tone for his spectacular freshman season right out of the blocks, as he scored a career high 31 points in UW's season opening win over Cal State Bakersfield, which was his first career college game. Those 31 points against CSUB tie for the 15th best individual scoring performance in Arena-Auditorium history. In the game, he made 15 free-throws, which are the fourth most in a single game in Arena-Auditorium history and a tie for the ninth most in school history. Those free throws also set an MWC record for most free throws made by a freshman. On the season, Muoieke played in all 33 games and started 31. He scored in double figures 22 times.

- Waddell posted four points, two assists and one rebound against Western State.

2010-11: As a junior, Waddell was a major contributor to the Cowboys despite battling some injuries. He missed eight games early in the season due to tendinitis in his Achilles. He also played much of the year with a stress reaction in his foot. In all, he played 23 games, including the final 17 games of the season. He averaged 3.9 points, 3.1 rebounds and 0.7 blocks a game. His best game of the season came in the Cowboys' win over New Mexico on Jan. 8. In that game, he recorded season highs of 16 points and eight rebounds. He blocked a career-high four shots against Utah on Jan. 15. He scored his 500th career point against New Mexico on Jan. 8, reaching the milestone through his first 76 career games.

2009-10: Despite spending much of his sophomore season hampered by injuries, Waddell was a crucial part of the Cowboy lineup. On the year, he averaged 9.4 points, 5.4 rebounds and 0.8 blocks a game. He scored in double figures 13 times and pulled down 10 or more rebounds three times. He recorded a pair of double-doubles--vs. Utah (Jan. 27) and at Colorado State (Feb. 6). His 5.4 rebounds per game was the 10th best average in the MW and his 0.8 blocks a game also ranked No. 10. He played in 29 games and was UW's starting center in 17 of those games, including 15 of the last 16 games.

Waddell's best game of the season came in the Cowboys 75-69 home win over Utah on Jan. 27. Not only did he record his first career double-double with 13 points and 22 rebounds, he matched the MW's all-time single-game rebounding record. Those 22 rebounds are the second most in a single game in Arena-Auditorium history and match the sixth most in Wyoming history. It also marked the first time a Cowboy had 20 rebounds in a game since Justin Williams had 20 against Charlotte on Nov. 15, 2005. Waddell's best scoring game of the season came as the Cowboys opened MW play against Colorado State on Jan. 6. In the game he scored a career high 18 points. His second career double-double came against the Rams, as he scored 16 points and pulled down 10 rebounds in Fort Collins on Feb. 6. After stringing three solid games together in the 2009 World Vision Challenge, Waddell was named to the All-Tournament team. In the event, he notched 39 points and 19 rebounds. Waddell had to battle soreness in his right knee throughout the year after undergoing arthroscopic surgery to repair cartilage prior to the season. He underwent surgery on Oct. 28 and returned to the lineup three weeks to the day later on Nov. 18. Waddell then sprained his left ankle against Utah on Jan. 27 and battled soreness and a bone bruise in the ankle for the remainder of the season. He scored in double figures 11 times before the ankle injury and just twice after the injury. Despite his injuries, he played through pain and missed just two games.

2008-09: Waddell was Wyoming's starting center for the final 21 games of the season and for 23 of UW's final 24 games. On the season, he averaged 5.1 points, 3.9 rebounds and 0.64 blocks per game. His 21 blocked shots gave him the ninth best average in the MW. In UW's win over Texas State, Waddell scored a career high 16 points, pulled down a then career high eight rebounds, and had a career high two steals. He pulled down a career high 10 rebounds at Boise State. In the First Round of the College Basketball Invitational, Waddell had one of his best games of the season, scoring 11 points and pulling down seven rebounds. He handed out a career high four assists in UW's home win over TCU on Feb. 21. In UW's loss at TCU, Waddell scored a conference career high 10 points. He matched that total with 10 points in UW's win over UNLV on Feb. 18.

2007-08: Waddell played in the first six games of the 2007-08 season before suffering a stress fracture to his left foot. He sat out the remainder of the season and was granted a medical hardship ruling from the NCAA to get his freshman season back. In his first six games of the season, Waddell averaged 4.0 points, 1.7 rebounds and 11.7 minutes a game. He scored a then career best 12 points in a 75-71 road win at Lamar. Waddell's best rebounding game prior to his injury came against Arkansas-Pine Bluff, when he pulled down six rebounds.

Before Wyoming: As a senior at Cody High School in Cody, Wyo., he earned All-State and All-North Conference honors.

Personal: Born on Christmas Eve 1988, his signing with the Cowboys was a natural one, as both his mother and father were student-athletes at UW. His mother, Lori (Kline) Waddell, still ranks eighth on the Cowgirl Basketball all-time scoring list. She scored 1,521 career points from the 1978-79 season through the 1982-83 campaign. Her freshman team was inducted to the UW Athletics Hall of Fame in the fall of 2008. His father, Tim Waddell, was a three-year letterman as an offensive lineman on the Cowboy Football team from 1977-79. He was also recruited by Boise State, Montana and UC-Irvine. He is majoring in communications.

The Cowboys are no stranger to postseason play. In fact, the Cowboys have played in the postseason 24 times. They have played in the NCAA Tournament 14 times, the National Invitation Tournament eight times and the College Basketball Invitational twice.

The Pokes have captured one NCAA Championship, during 1942-43. That year, the Pokes were led by head coach Everett Shelton and star players Kenny Sailors and Milo Komenich. Sailors was named the Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Tournament and is currently the oldest living MOP. The 1986-87 season was another special postseason for the Cowboys. Led by the tandem of Fennis Dembo and Eric Leckner, the Cowboys advanced all the way to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. In UW's second round game, the Cowboys beat UCLA and, their star at the time, Reggie Miller. Dembo led all scorers in the game with 41 points. Wyoming's most recent trip to the NCAA tournament saw the Cowboys advance to the Second Round in 2002. In the first round, the 11th seeded Cowboys met Gonzaga, who was ranked sixth in the country at the time. The Cowboys upset the Bulldogs 73-66.

Of Wyoming's eight appearances in the NIT, the Cowboys have advanced to at least the second round four times. Their best NIT run came at the end of the 1985-86 season when the Cowboys advanced to the championship game, which was played at Madison Square Garden.

The 2009-10 season marked the Pokes' first appearance in the CBI.
