Washington State Cougars (1-7, 0-5) at Arizona Wildcats (5-2, 3-1)

Arizona Stadium • Tucson, Arizona • November 7
12:30 p.m. (PT) • TV: AWSN, Fox College Sports
Radio: Cougar Sports Radio Network

SATURDAY'S GAME: Washington State (1-7, 0-5) concludes its longest stint away from Martin Stadium in 2009 when it travels to Tucson, Ariz. to face the Arizona Wildcats (5-2, 3-1) at 1:30 p.m., local time (12:30 p.m. PT). The game will be televised live by Fox College Sports and the Arizona Wildcats Sports Network, and then rebroadcast by FSN Northwest Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

WASHINGTON STATE vs. ARIZONA - THE SERIES: Arizona holds a 23-13 advantage in the all-time series, although the Cougars have captured four of the last seven games. The Wildcats earned a 59-28 victory last season in Pullman as Nic Grigsby rushed for a game-high 189 yards and a touchdown. The last time the two teams met in Tucson, the Wildcats scored the final 28 points in a 48-20 victory in 2007. The Wildcats hold a 12-7 edge when playing at home, although the Cougars had won the previous three meetings at Arizona Stadium prior to 2007. Arizona has captured the last three games in the series after the Cougars had taken the previous four.

FOUR COUGARS RECEIVE MIDSEASON RECOGNITION: Four Cougars were included on Phil Steele's Midseason All-Pacific-10 Conference list. Redshirt junior punter Reid Forrest was named to the first team, redshirt senior center Kenny Alfred was named to the second team and freshman defensive end Travis Long and junior safety Chima Nwachukwu were each named to the third team.

LINEUP SHUFFLE: Through the first eight games of the 2009 season, the Cougar coaching staff is still searching for continuity within its starting lineup. Midway through the campaign, injuries have forced the Cougars to use five different starting lineups in its offensive live, seven different starting lineups on offense and six different starting units on defense. There has yet to be two games this year where WSU has used the same starting offense and defense.

PUTTING IN TIME: Looking at the 2009 WSU roster reveals few names who have been in the program more than two years. Of the 114 players currently on the Cougar roster, only 37 have been a member of the team more than two years. That includes only six current fifth-year seniors and 15 total players who have earned more than one varsity letter. Compare that to the success of WSU during the 2002 and 2003 season, when the Cougars had 28 and 24 players, respectively, with multiple varsity letter winners.

INJURIES TAKING A TOLL: Through the first eight games of the 2009 season, the Cougars have been hit hard by the injury bug, particularly on the offensive and defensive lines. So far this season WSU has missed 64 player games due to injury or illness. On the offensive line five players who have started this season have 17 missed games due to injury, while the defensive line has missed a total of 14 games from five players.

TURPIN HAS BIG GAME: Red-shirt junior defensive tackle Toby Turpin blocked his second kick in as many weeks, this time a PAT in the first quarter against Notre Dame. Turpin blocked a field goal attempt two weeks ago against California. The last Cougar to block a PAT was also Turpin, against Stanford in 2008. The last time a Cougar player had multiple blocks in the same season was in 2004, when both Cody Boyd (three) and Erik Coleman (two) did it. Turpin also recorded his first sack of the season, and his first since Hawaii in 2008.

FIRST STARTS: Continuing a trend from 2008, WSU has had a number of players make their starting debuts in 2009. Through the first eight games, 19 Cougars have made their first career starts, six on offense and 13 on defense. In 2008 26 players registered their first start for WSU, 17 on offense and nine on defense. First-time offensive starters in 2009 include Gino Simone (WR), Zack Williams (OG), Jeffrey Solomon (WR), Alex Reitnouer (OL), Jeff Tuel (QB) and Tyson Pencer (OT). Defensive starters include Travis Long (DE), Bernard Wolfgramm (DT), Josh Luapo (DT), Jason Stripling (LB), Brandon Jones (CB), LeAndre Daniels (S), Alex Hoffman-Ellis (LB), Casey Hamlett (DE), Daniel Simmons (CB), Anthony Laurenzi (DT), Mike Ledgerwood (LB), Terrance Hayward (CB) and Dan Spitz (DE).

NOTRE DAME NOTABLES: Freshman wide receiver Gino Simone caught one pass for 15 yards, giving him at least one reception in each of the seven games he has played this year... he missed the SMU game with a concussion...sophomore wide receiver Jared Karstetter caught two touchdown passes, giving him five on the season...the total is the most by a Cougar since Brandon Gibson caught nine touchdown passes in 2007... freshman Jared Byers' 12-yard reception in the second quarter was the first of his career... redshirt senior linebacker Jason Stripling's 13 tackles were a career high and marked the first double-digit effort of his career...redshirt sophomore linebacker Alex Hoffman-Ellis recorded his second double-digit tackling game of the season... his 12 tackles were a career high...Andy Mattingly became the 10th Cougar to force a fumble this season...WSU has forced 13 fumbles in 2009, more than twice the total than in all of 2008 (six)...WSU has recovered 12 fumbles in 2009, four times as many as in all of 2008 (three), and the most by a Cougar team since 2006 (14).

DEFENSE CREATING MORE OPPORTUNITIES: The WSU defense has forced 20 turnovers, and ranked second in the Pac-10 entering the week. The total is already more than in all of last season (13).

TUEL GOES OVER 300: Freshman quarterback Jeff Tuel's 354 passing yards are the second-most by a true freshman quarterback in school history. Drew Bledsoe holds WSU's record by a true freshman, throwing for 385 yards against Arizona, Oct. 27, 1990. Tuel had eclipsed his career high with 232 yards in the first half. The last Cougar quarterback to throw for 300 yards in a game was Alex Brink, who threw for 399 yards against Washington in 2007.

FRESHMEN STARTS APPROACHING DECADE HIGH: Through the first eight games of 2009, the Cougars have had a combined 41 starts by freshmen, more than in nine of the last 10 full seasons. In the last 10 years, only 2008 (47) saw more combined starts by freshmen. Additionally, 10 freshmen have garnered starting roles this year, the most by a Cougar team since WSU also started 10 freshmen in 2000.

TURNOVERS WAY DOWN FROM 2008: The Cougars have a turnover margin of -2 in 2009. Through the first eight games of 2008, WSU had a turnover margin of minus-15. Against both Stanford and California this season the Cougars have played turnover-free, something they did not accomplish at any point during 2008.

LAST MEETING

Arizona 59, WSU 28

Nov. 8, 2008, Tucson, Ariz.

Nic Grigsby rushed for 189 yards and a touchdown, one of seven rushing touchdowns on the for the Wildcats, as Arizona defeated Washington State 59-28. WSU scored first on an 18-yard run by Dwight Tardy, snapping a streak of 10 quarters in which the Cougars had failed to score. Kevin Lopina added a pair of short touchdown runs while Logwone Mitz had a two-yard score as he led WSU with 57 yards on the ground. Greg Trent recorded 10 tackles for WSU, becoming just the 10th player in school history to register 300 or more career tackles.

WSU CONCLUDING LONG ROADTRIP: Since WSU's home game against SMU, the Cougars have embarked on a part of their schedule that sees them play five of six games on the road. Following contests at USC and Oregon, WSU returned home to host Arizona State Oct. 10. After a bye, the Cougars play their following three games on the road at Cal, Notre Dame (San Antonio) and Arizona. All added up, WSU will be away from Martin Stadium for 35 days.

Most Days Between Home Games

37 – UAB (Oct. 1-Nov. 7)
36 – Hawai'i (Sept. 4-Oct. 10)
35 – WSU (Oct. 10-Nov. 14)
35 – Arizona (Sept. 12-Oct. 17)
35 – Georgia (Oct. 3-Nov. 7)
35 – MTSU (Sept. 12-Oct. 17)
35 – SMU (Sept. 5-Oct. 10)

FORZANI GOES DEEP: Redshirt junior wide receiver Johnny Forzani's 68-yard touchdown against California was his second of more than 65 yards in as many games (he also caught a 99-yard touchdown against Arizona State). The last Cougar to catch multiple 65-yard-plus touchdowns in the same season was Chris Jackson in 1997. Jackson caught 72- and 78-yard touchdown passes against California and UCLA, respectively.

ALFRED NAMED DRADDY SEMIFINALIST:

Senior offensive lineman Kenny Alfred was named a semifinalist for the Draddy Trophy by the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. The Draddy Trophy recognizes the best and brightest in college football, as nominees must have at least a 3.2 GPA, must be a first team player or significant contributor and must demonstrate strong leadership and citizenship. Alfred's former teammate Alex Brink was a finalist for the award in 2007.

TARDY RUSHING FOR A FIRST: Redshirt senior running back Dwight Tardy is looking to become the first known running back in school history to lead WSU in the statistical category in four consecutive seasons. Dating as far back as 1942, only three backs have led WSU in rushing in three consecutive seasons: Tardy (2006-08), Shaumbe Wright-Fair (1990-92) and Tim Harris (1980-82). So far this season Tardy has rushed for a team leading 258 yards.

PUNT FORREST, PUNT: Junior Reid Forrest continues to be a bright spot for the Cougars' special teams. So far this season he is averaging 43.5 yards per kick, with a career-best 65-yarder against USC. He has 11 punts this season over 50 yards, including three over 60. Forrest has moved into WSU's all-time list for both career punts and career punting yards. His 7,516 career punting yards rank sixth on the Cougars' all-time list as do his 180 career punts.

IMPROVEMENT IN RED ZONE: Through the first eight games of the 2009 season, the Cougar defense has taken a hard stand in the red zone. WSU is second in the Pac-10 in red zone defense, allowing just 73.5 percent of chances finding the scoreboard. Opponents have entered WSU's red zone 34 times, coming away with 20 touchdowns (58.8 percent) and three field goals. The Cougars have created five turnovers inside their 20, the most by any conference school. Since the start of the 2001 season, no Cougar team has allowed less than 70 percent of successful red zone chances.

NOTABLES FROM CALIFORNIA: WSU ended its first-quarter scoring drought with Nico Grasu's 24-yard field goal with 2:20 remaining in the opening stanza... the last time WSU scored in the opening period was against Arizona, Nov. 8, 2008... true freshman running back Carl Winston's 37-yard run in the second quarter was the longest rush by a Cougar in 2009...WSU's 440 yards of total offense were the most since Portland State in 2008 (638), and the most against a Pac-10 foe since Washington in 2007 (509)...the Cougars scored 17 first-half points, the most in a half against a Pac-10 opponent since scoring 21 second-half points against Washington in 2007... redshirt junior defensive tackle Toby Turpin's blocked field goal at the end of the second quarter is the first by a Cougar since 2005, when Aaron Johnson – also a defensive tackle – blocked a Stanford field goal attempt... true freshman wide receiver Gino Simone's second-quarter 19-yard touchdown reception was the first of his career.

NOTABLES FROM ARIZONA STATE: Freshman defensive tackle Anthony Laurenzi became the ninth freshman to record his first-career start this season, matching the total number of freshmen to start a game in all of 2009...the last time WSU started as many as nine freshmen in back-to-back seasons was in 1999 (11) and 2000 (10), the two seasons prior to WSU's run of three consecutive bowl games...freshman quarterback Jeff Tuel's 99-yard touchdown pass to Johnny Forzani was the longest play from scrimmage in school history...the Cougar defense recorded six takeaways against the Sun Devils, and now has 18 on the season, more than in all of last season (13)...the six takeaways were the most against Arizona State since also recording six in 1987, and the most against any opponent since recording seven against UCLA in 2003.

NOTABLE FROM OREGON: With Carl Winston (running back), Alex Reitnouer (offensive guard) and Jared Byers (fullback) all seeing action against the Ducks, the Cougars have now played six true freshman in 2009...WSU played nine true freshman during the 2005 season...redshirt senior running back Dwight Tardy became only the ninth running back in WSU history to eclipse 2,000 career rushing yards...redshirt freshman cornerback Terrance Hayward recorded a career-high nine tackles...his eight first-quarter tackles were more than he had on the season entering the game (three).

NOTABLES FROM USC: Redshirt freshman cornerback Daniel Simmons recorded the first two tackles-for-loss of his career... sophomore linebacker Alex Hoffman-Ellis led WSU with a season-high 10 tackles... junior punter Reid Forrest connected for a 65-yard punt in the fourth quarter, eclipsing his career-best of 64 in the 2009 opener against Stanford...the Cougar defense held USC scoreless in the second and third quarters, making the first time since 2000 that WSU held the Trojans scoreless in back-to-back periods.

FRESHMEN CONNECTION: It didn't take long for true freshmen Jeff Tuel and Gino Simone to connect on the field. While Tuel grabbed much of the headlines, Simone had a huge game against the Trojans. The freshman from Sammamish, Wash., caught eight passes for 83 yards, all after Tuel entered the game midway through the second quarter. The eight receptions were the most by a Cougar since Brandon Gibson pulled down 10 catches for 103 yards against Oregon in 2008. Simone entered the game with four catches for 24 yards on the season.

A SECOND TIME FOR A FIRST: True freshman Jeff Tuel was given the starting nod at quarterback at Oregon, marking only the second time in school history WSU started a true freshman signal caller. The first was Drew Bledsoe in 1990, who made his first career start at Oregon State in the seventh game of the season. Tuel made his Cougar debut against USC, entering in the second quarter and finished by game completing 14-of-22 passes for 130 yards. Tuel is only the second true freshman quarterback to attempt a pass for the Cougars since Bledsoe in 1990 (JT Levenseller was the other in 2008).

MONTGOMERY OUT FOR SEASON: Washington State University junior running back James Montgomery underwent surgery Sept. 20, for acute compartment syndrome in his left leg. The surgery was performed by Cougar team physician Dr. Ed Tingstad and will end Montgomery's season. Through the first three games of the season Montgomery led the Cougars in rushing, including his 118-yard effort against Hawaii. His 132.3 all-purpose yards per game ranked 46th in the nation and his 24.0 kickoff return average was t-51st.

PHASE III OF MARTIN STADIUM RENOVATION LAUNCHED: Washington State University Director of Athletics Jim Sterk announced Tuesday (Sept. 22) the public launch of the third phase of the Martin Stadium Renovation project. Originally budgeted at approximately $40 million, Phase III involves the construction of luxury suites, loge boxes and club seats atop the north stands. It follows the completion of Phases I and II, which included the addition of concession and restroom areas throughout the stadium, a concourse at the stadium's north side, many new comfort and safety enhancements, a Martin Stadium sign at the east end, a state-of-the-art scoreboard and the Cougar Pride statue at the newly created plaza area on the stadium's northeast side. Phases I and II began in December 2006 and were completed in the fall of 2008. The motto of the renovation project is TeamBuilt, a slogan that Sterk says communicates the importance of the involvement of all Cougar fans in this project. More information on the renovation of Martin Stadium can be found by visiting the official stadium renovation Web site www.martinstadium.org.

COUGAR DEFENSE GETS TWO SCORES AGAINST SMU: Redshirt junior linebacker Alex Hoffman-Ellis and redshirt junior Myron Beck each returned interceptions for touchdowns against SMU, sparking the Cougar comeback. Hoffman-Ellis went 52 yards near the end of the third period and Beck brought WSU to within seven points early in the fourth when he raced 67 yards to payday. The two interception returns for a touchdown tied the school record, set twice in 1987, against Wyoming (Sept. 12) and against Arizona (Oct. 24).

COMEBACK WIN LARGEST SINCE 1994: WSU's come-from-behind, 30-27 overtime win against SMU marked the largest comeback by a Cougar squad since the 1994 season. The last time WSU overcame a 17-plus point deficit to win the game was against California Oct. 29, 1994, when the Cougars trailed California by 18 points in the first quarter (20-2), and came back to win 26-23.

NOTABLES FROM SMU: Sophomore Marshall Lobbestael earned his first start of the season and responded with a career-best 239 passing yards...the Cougar defense forced its seventh and eighth fumbles of the season, recovering one...WSU's five recoveries in 2009 are also more than in all of 2008 (three)...the Cougar defense intercepted four passes on the day...the last time the Cougars intercepted four passes

COUGS AGAINST RANKED TEAMS SINCE

1995: Since 1995 WSU is 12-37 against ranked teams and 6-7 when WSU was also ranked... since 2001 WSU is 9-19 against ranked teams:

was against Oregon State in 2008 (Oct. 11)...freshman defensive end Travis Long's sack in the first quarter was the first of his career...redshirt freshman defensive tackle Anthony Laurenzi also recorded the first sack of his career in the second quarter... junior wide receiver Daniel Blackledge's second-quarter touchdown was the first of his career.

COLLEGE GAMEDAY RECORD: In addition to Chris Fowler, Kirk Herbstreit and Lee Corso, ESPN's College Gameday has had another constant – the WSU flag, which has appeared on the weekly show a record 86-consecutive times since the beginning of the 2004 season. Two flags – Ol' Crimson and Whitey – have been flown in the background of the Gameday set by as many as 115 friends and alumni. In addition to the flags that fly, there is a traveling flag signed by the holders after each episode. The traveling flag is retired after each season, the first of which is hanging in WSU's Alumni Center.

TARDY MOVING UP THE RUSHING LISTS: Redshirt senior running back Dwight Tardy entered the 2009 season ranked 10th in both career rushes and career rushing yards. Tardy became only the ninth running back in WSU history to eclipse 2,000 career rushing yards following the Oregon game. Tardy now has 2,082 on his career, and ranks ninth on WSU's career rushing list. His 486 carries rank seventh all-time.

2011 HAWAII GAME REMOVED FROM SCHEDULE: The 2011 meeting between Washington State and Hawaii has been removed from the Cougars schedule to allow for flexibility in the Pac-10 Conference schedule that year, said WSU Director of Athletics Jim Sterk. "The conference is looking at ways to create an off week during a 12-game schedule and this allows us the opportunity to adjust accordingly," said Sterk. WSU will pay the $300,000 buyout stipulated in the contract.

CORY MACKAY UPDATE: Washington State University redshirt freshman defensive end Cory Mackay continues his rehabilitation following a single-car accident on his way home from WSU last May. The accident left Mackay without the use of his lower body, though he continues to show improvement. His rehabilitation includes work at Pushing Boundaries, an exercise facility in his hometown of Redmond, Wash. Mackay is currently taking online classes through WSU and plans to return to campus in January to begin the winter semester. Against Hawaii at Qwest Field Mackay served as the Cougars' honorary captain, raising the Cougar flag pregame and greeting his teammates in the lockerroom prior to kickoff.

NOTABLES FROM HAWAII: Junior wide receiver Jeffrey Solomon had team-highs of six receptions and 71 yards against the Warriors...in addition to his 118 yards on the ground, James Montgomery added a 10-yard reception and 78 yards in kickoff returns for 206 yards of all-purpose yards... in the first start of his career, linebacker Alex Hoffman-Ellis had a game-high-tying nine tackles, including five solo and two TFLs...junior punter Reid Forrest continued his strong start, averaging 46 ypp on four kicks, with a long of 62.

NOTABLES FROM STANFORD: Eight different Cougars made their first collegiate start against Stanford...sophomore Louis Bland registered a game and career-high 10 tackles...senior running back Dwight Tardy moved into eighth place on the career rushes list with 434...junior punter Reid Forrest booted a career-long 64-yard punt, one of three punts over 50 yards on the day...quarterback Kevin Lopina's five-yard strike to Jared Karstetter was the first TD pass of his career...Karstetter ended the day with 91 receiving yards, one yard better than his 2008 season total...junior wide receiver Daniel Blackledge (67 yards) and senior tight end Tony Thompson (36 yards) both had career-best days.

ANDERSON TO FOCUS ON TRACK CAREER: Washington State University junior wide receiver Jeshua Anderson decided to leave the Cougar football team last week and focus solely on his track endeavors. Anderson has played in the first two games this season, catching four passes for 66 yards. For his career he has played in 26 games, 13 as a starter, catching 48 passes for 743 yards and four touchdowns. On the track Anderson is a two-time Pacific-10 Conference, NCAA West Regional and NCAA champion in the 400-meter hurdles. He earned outdoor All-America honors twice and indoor All-America recognition once, and holds the school record in the 400m hurdles (48.47 seconds) and 4x400m indoor relay (3:06.74). He finished ninth at the 2008 Olympic Trials and fifth at the 2009 USA Outdoor Championships.

COUGARS ON LIVE TV: Washington State University has already been selected to appear on live television six times this season. Both ABC, FSN and Versus can select additional games during the course of the 2009 season, with selections made six or 12 days in advance of the games.

STARTING FROM DAY ONE: The Cougars had two true freshman start the 2009 season-opener against Stanford (Travis Long, defensive end; Gino Simone, wide receiver), the second time since the inception of the Pacific-10 Conference in 1978, and first in 31 years, two true freshmen position players started a season-opener for WSU. Prior to this season, only 12 Cougars had started a season-opener as true freshmen, eight of which were position players.

THOMPSON WEARING DAD'S NUMBER: Senior tight end Tony Thompson wears a familiar number this season, one that his father wore more than 30 years ago. The younger Thompson wears No. 14, a tribute to his father, Jack, who wore the number from 1975-78. Following Jack's WSU playing career, the Cougars retired his No. 14, only the second football jersey to be retired (No. 7, Mel Hein) at WSU.

WSU'S OVERTIME EXPERIENCE: WSU is 3-6 in overtime games since the start of the 2000 season:

Cougar has been announced as a member of the 2009 Capital One Mascot Challenge, and fans can vote to make Butch the Capital One Mascot Challenge Champion. Butch, one of 12 mascots selected to this year's All-American Mascot Team, won the competition in 2006, and was also a member of the team in 2005. Voting began Aug. 31, and will run through December. Fans can view Butch's featured video now at www.capitalonebowl.com.

HEAD COACH PAUL WULFF

Paul Wulff enters his second season on the Cougar sideline after being named Washington's State's 31st head coach, Dec. 10, 2007. With his appointment Wulff became the first WSU football letterwinner and graduate to lead the Cougars since Phil Sarboe served as head coach from 1945-49.

A 1990 graduate of WSU and a four-year letterwinner, Wulff's first season leading the Cougars proved difficult as the transition to a new head coach combined with numerous injuries resulting in a 2-11 record. WSU's lone conference win came in dramatic fashion as the Cougars needed a last second field goal in regulation and two overtimes to defeat Washington 16-13 in the Apple Cup.

Wulff spent the previous 15 seasons at Eastern Washington University, the final eight as head coach. There he amassed a record of 53-40. During his eight-year head coaching tenure Wulff was named Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year three times (2001, 2004, 2005) and led the Eagles into the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs three times in the last four years. He enters the 2009 campaign with a 55-51 career head coaching record in nine seasons.

In 2007 he guided the Eagles to a 9-4 mark, including a quarterfinal appearance at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision Playoffs, falling to two-time defending champion Appalachian State. It marked the seventh time in his eight years at Eastern that his teams posted winning records.

Wulff began his coaching career at EWU in 1993 as a volunteer assistant working with the offensive line. He was named offensive line/strength coach the following season and spent four years in the position before being promoted to offensive coordinator/offensive line/strength coach in 1998.

Following two seasons as the team's offensive coordinator, Wulff was named head coach at Eastern prior to the 2000 season. He guided the Eagles to six straight winning seasons and seven overall during his eight-year tenure.

Wulff's 2005 team was loaded with experience, talent and leadership, featuring a group of seniors that included the Big Sky's Offensive and Defensive MVP's (Erik Meyer and Joey Cwik), and featured a trio of All-Americans (Meyer, Eric Kimble and Matt Alfred). Meyer would go on to win the Walter Payton Award as the best football player in the Football Championship Subdivision. Together, Meyer and Kimble rewrote Eastern's record book as they combined for 27 school records and four Big Sky marks. Meyer set a FCS record for passing efficiency rating (166.47 with 10,261 yards, 84 touchdowns, just 17 interceptions and a .657 completion rate), while Kimble's 46 touchdown grabs ranked second in FCS history behind the 50 of legendary Jerry Rice. The Eagles finished 7-5 and won the Big Sky title with a 5-2 record before losing to eventual national runner-up Northern Iowa in the first round of the playoffs.

The 2004 season was also special, even after the Eagles opened the season 0-2. Eastern won eight of its next nine games - most by substantial margins - as the Eagles closed the year with a 51-44 overtime victory at Montana State to secure a place in the playoffs. Quarterback Erik Meyer was named the league's Offensive Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award. Senior offensive tackle Michael Roos joined Meyer, wide receiver Eric Kimble and guard Rocky Hanni as All-Americans, with Roos eventually being taken in the second round of the NFL draft by the Tennessee Titans.

In 2004, Wulff's squad finished 9-4 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the playoffs. The crowning glory came when the Eagles knocked off No. 1-ranked and top-seeded Southern Illinois in the first round.

Statistically, the 2004 and 2005 teams were nearly identical with each finishing the year ranked fourth in FCS in total offense. In 2005 the Eagles averaged 477.8 yards per game, and were 14th in scoring (35.0). A year earlier the Eagles averaged 475.5 yards and 37.5 points per game to rank sixth.

Wulff coached 21 players to 54 Football Championship Subdivision (formerly Division I-AA) All-America honors in his first seven years at the helm of the EWU program, and two more of his players were named to the Sports Network's 2007 FCS All-America team at the conclusion of last year. Of the 21 players to earn All-America recognition, 15 have been offensive lineman.

Additionally, Wulff has mentored 15 players who have earned 18 total CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII honors and a total of 131 All-Big Sky Conference Academic team members.

As a student-athlete and four-year starter at center for the Cougars from 1986-89, Wulff was an All-America honoree himself as a senior, earning honorable mention accolades from The Sporting News. Wulff started at center under three different coaches after redshirting in 1985. He played for Jim Walden in 1986, Dennis Erickson from 1987-88 and Mike Price in 1989. He was also the starting center on WSU's 1988 Aloha Bowl championship team.

After a successful collegiate career Wulff had a brief pro career as a center after graduating from Washington State University in 1990. He signed a free agent contract with the New York Jets, but was released after injuring an ankle and a rib in the preseason. He played in spring 1991 with Raleigh-Durham of the World League, then played in spring 1992 with New York-New Jersey.

A 1985 graduate of Davis High School in Davis, Calif., Wulff played for three different coaches while he was at WSU. He redshirted in 1985 and started four games at guard in 1986 under Jim Walden.

Dennis Erickson directed the program in 1987 and 1988 with Wulff as his starting center both years. In 1988, the Cougars were victorious in the Aloha Bowl as Wulff earned honorable mention All-Pacific-10 Conference honors.

Under Mike Price in 1989, Wulff earned second-team all-conference honors and was an honorable mention selection on The Sporting News All-America squad. He was also WSU's long snapper during his stay there.

Wulff was born Feb. 25, 1967, in Woodland, Calif. He and his wife Sherry have a 14-year-old daughter, Katie, and two sons, six-year-old Max and three-year-old Sam.

2009 WSU GAME SUMMARIES

Stanford at Washington State

Sept. 5, 2009 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 22,386 • TV: FSN Northwest

Sept. 5, 2009, PULLMAN – Toby Gerhart rushed for a game-high 121 yards and two touchdowns as the Stanford Cardinal opened the season with a 39-13 victory over host Washington State. Stanford opened the scoring on a one-yard Gerhart touchdown run but the Cougars responded with a pair of long drives, cutting the lead to 8-3 early in the second quarter. A pair of touchdowns by the Cardinal, one though the air and another on the ground, gave Stanford a 22-3 lead at halftime. WSU opened the second half with an 8-play, 80-yard scoring drive, capped by a five-yard Kevin Lopina touchdown pass to Jared Karstetter, the first TD pass of Lopina's career. Nico Grasu's second field goal of the game cut the lead to 39-13 after three periods and WSU drew no closer. WSU receiver Daniel Blackledge finished the day with a career-best six catches and 67 yards while punter Reid Forrest averaged 47.7 yards per punt on six kicks, including a career-best 64 yarder.

Hawaii at Washington State

Sept. 12 2009 • Qwest Field • Att.: 42,912 • TV: FSN Northwest

Sept. 12, 2009, SEATTLE – Greg Alexander threw for 453 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Hawaii Warriors to a 38-20 victory over Washington State at the Cougar Gridiron Classic presented by Washington's Beef Producers. Alexander connected on scoring throws of 23 and 73 yards to Rodney Bradley in the first 20 minutes of the contest as the Warriors raced to a 35-0 lead in the first half. WSU found the scoreboard late in the first half as Nico Grasu connected on field goals from 20 and 40 yards in the final 2:03 to trail 35-6 at halftime. The Cougars opened the second half with a 15-play, 84-yard drive, capped by a two-yard James Montgomery touchdown run, the first of his Cougar career. A four-yard touchdown run by Kevin Lopina in the fourth quarter closed out WSU's scoring. Montgomery ended his night with 118 yards rushing and the score, while Jeffrey Solomon had six catches for 71 yards. Greg Salas had seven catches for 195 yards and a score for Hawaii, while Bradley ended his night with seven yards for 150 yards and two touchdowns.

2009 WSU GAME SUMMARIES

SMU at Washington State

Sept. 19, 2009 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 22,319

Sept. 19, 2009, PULLMAN – Alex Hoffman-Ellis and Myron Beck each had interception returns for touchdowns and Nico Grasu's 39-yard field goal in overtime capped a 30-27 comeback from behind victory as Washington State defeated SMU for its first win of the 2009 season. SMU scored the game's first 17 points and led 27-13 with just over 10 minutes remaining in regulation before a furious Cougar rally. Beck stepped in from of a Bo Levi Mitchell pass and raced 67 yards with 10:07 left to bring WSU with seven at 27-20. Getting the ball on its own 20 with 2:03 left, Marshall Lobbestael orchestrated an 80-yard, 11-play drive in 1:35, tying the score when he connected with Jared Karstetter for a seven-yard strike to send the game into overtime. On SMU's first play, Chima Nwachukwu intercepted a Mitchell pass in the back of the end zone then three plays later, Grasu connected on the game winner. It marked the first time since the 1987 season WSU had two interception returns for touchdowns in the same game. SMU receiver Emmanuel Sanders hauled in 18 passes for 178 yards in a losing effort.

Washington State at USC

Sept. 26 2009 • Los Angeles Coliseum • Att.: 75,216 • TV: FSN

Sept. 26, 2009, LOS ANGELES – Freshman Matt Barkley threw for 247 yards and two touchdowns as the USC Trojans jumped to a 20-0 lead in the first quarter en route to a 27-6 victory over Washington State. Barkley threw touchdown passes of 57 and 29 yards to Danian Williams and Brice Butler, respectively, to put the Trojans ahead early. The Cougars defense settled down late in the first quarter and held USC to just seven points over the final three periods. Midway through the second quarter, true freshman Jeff Tuel made his Cougar debut and led WSU on a 19-play, 58-yard drive that lasted 8:35 and stalled with a missed field goal at the half ended. Tuel showed little signs of inexperience as he led the Cougs on a fourth-quarter, 13-play, 71-yard drive capped by a Dwight Tardy two-yard touchdown run. Tuel finished the night going 14-22 for 130 yards and an interception. Freshman Gino Simone was Tuel's favorite target, collecting eight passes for 83 yards, both season highs. WSU's defense rose to the challenge again, twice stuffing USC drive inside the five with goal line stops resulting in zero points.

2009 WSU GAME SUMMARIES

Washington State at Oregon

Oct. 3, 2009 • Autzen Stadium • Att.: 57,378 • TV: OSN

Oct. 3, 2009, EUGENE – Lemichael James rushed for 81 yards and two touchdowns to lead the No. 16 Oregon Ducks to a 52-6 victory over Washington State. James led a strong ground attack for the Ducks as they piled up 318 rushing yards and six touchdowns. Oregon jumped out to a 42-0 halftime lead as James scored two first-quarter touchdowns on runs of 26 and three yards. The Cougars found the scoreboard in the third quarter as Marshall Lobbestael scored on a one-yard run, taking advantage of an Oregon fumble on its own one yard line. Lobbestael came on in the first quarter in relief of freshman starter Jeff Tuel, who was starting his first career game and left with a hip pointer after being sacked. Also starting their first career game for WSU was true freshman Alex Reitnouer at left guard. Duck quarterback Jeremy Masoli finished his night with 52 yards and a score on the ground and 116 yards in the air with a touchdown pass to Ed Dickson.

Arizona State at Washington State

Oct. 10, 2009 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 26,210

Oct. 10, 2009, PULLMAN –Danny Sullivan ran for one touchdown and threw for another as Arizona State relied on the Pacific-10's best defense to beat Washington State 27-14 on Saturday. Kyle Williams had 13 catches for 126 yards and a touchdown as Arizona State (3-2, 1-1 Pac-10) beat WSU for the sixth-straight time. The Sun Devils won despite suffering three interceptions and losing three fumbles in unseasonably cold, windy conditions. Washington State (1-5, 0-4) managed only 181 yards, 99 of them on the longest touchdown pass in school history. But it was their closest conference loss so far. Embattled quarterback Danny Sullivan played most of the game for Arizona State, although Brock Osweiler got some plays. Sullivan completed 19 of 29 passes for 169 yards.

2009 WSU GAME SUMMARIES

Washington State at California

Oct. 24, 2009 • Memorial Coliseum • Att.: 54,738

Oct. 24, 2009, BERKELEY – Jahvid Best rushed for a game-high 159 yards and two touchdowns to lead California past Washington State 49-17 in front of 54,738 at Memorial Stadium. Best opened the scoring with a 27-yard touchdown reception from Kevin Riley on the game's second play. The Golden Bears built a 28-3 lead at the end of the first quarter and led 35-3 but two Cougars touchdowns within a five-minute span of the second quarter cut the halftime lead to 35-17. For the second straight Jeff Tuel hooked up with Johnny Forzani for a long scoring play, this time a 68-yard strike as Forzani got behind the Cal defense. Following a defensive stop, Tuel found another true freshman, Gino Simone, for a 19-yard scoring strike to close out the Cougar scoring. Tuel ended his day with 354 passing yards, the most by a true freshman since Drew Bledsoe threw for 385 yards in 1990. Forzani finished with 116 receiving yards, the most by a Cougar receiver this year.

Washington State vs. Notre Dame (San Antonio)

Oct. 31, 2009 • The Alamodome • Att.: 53,407

Oct. 31, 2009, SAN ANTONIO – Jimmy Clausen threw for 268 yards and two touchdowns while Robert Hughes rushed for a game-high 131 yards and a touchdown as Notre Dame defeated Washington State 40-14 during the San Antonio Showdown Halloween night. Clausen completed 22 of 27 passes before leaving the game midway through the third period. The Irish led 23-0 in the first half before the Cougars found the scoreboard on a Jeff Tuel to Jared Karstetter 11-yard scoring pass. The two combined for WSU's other touchdown, this time an eight-yard strike in the fourth quarter to close out the scoring. Irish wide receiver Golden Tate collected 141 yards of total offense, gaining 61 and a score on the ground while adding another 80 on four catches and a touchdown. WSU senior Dwight Tardy rushed for a season-high 72 yards on eight carries. Defensively, senior linebacker Jason Stripling, playing in his home state of Texas for the first time as a collegian, posted a career-high of 13 tackles.
