Team Academic Achievements

Kate Benz

Academic success has been a mainstay with the Washington State women's basketball program and the 2005-06 squad continued the tradition, with five Cougars earning Pacific-10 All-Academic honors.

Kate Benz was named to the Pac-10 All-Academic first team for the second consecutive year, marking the seventh consecutive year the Cougars placed at least one student-athlete conference's first team.

In all, the Cougars have placed 25 student-athletes on the Pac-10 All-Academic Teams in the past seven years.

ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America® Teams as selected by CoSIDA

The Academic All-America® Teams program was created in 1952 by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) to honor college student-athletes who excel not just in athletics, but also in academics.

Kate Benz and Adriane Ferguson added their names to the list of Cougar honorees with selections to the District VIII University first and second team, respectively in 2005. The pair follows up a growing list of Cougars selected to the team. Lindsey Egeland earned a District VIII second team nod in 2004 while Victoria Harrod and Katie Nyseth were selected to the District VIII first team in 2001. In 1992, Darla Williamson earned a spot on the District VIII team as did Jeanne Eggart in 1982. Eggart achieved national honorable mention accolades that same year.
