HENAHAN 100 FLY ALL-AMERICAN

Senior Lindsay Henahan opened day two of the NCAA Swim Championships with a 16th place finish in the 100 butterfly in a time of 54.02, becoming WSU's first All-American since Erin Eldridge in 1999.

The co-captain from Rochester, N.Y., had to overcome a flight delay in Denver due to a snowstorm. The delay, which began after boarding her 11:45 a.m. MST flight on Tuesday, March 18, kept Henahan from arriving at the championships in Auburn until 12:30 a.m. CST Friday. Her best event, the 100 butterfly began at 11 a.m. Friday. Henahan was supposed to race in the 50 freestyle Thursday, but missed the event.

Henahan had to train for her event at a Holiday Inn in Denver about 17 miles from the airport. Due to the fact that the stranded passengers did not have access to their luggage, Henahan had to purchase a swimsuit and goggles from the hotel gift shop. After arriving in Auburn, Henahan received her luggage and was able to race in her racing suit.

Henahan ended her swimming career at Washington State University with a 68th place finish in the 100 freestyle at the event.

COPLAND MAKES WAVES AT U.S. NATIONALS

Freshman Jane Copland finished 21st in the finals of the 200m breaststroke at the 2003 U.S. National Championships. Copland, a native of Wellington, New Zealand, posted a time of 2:36.95 in the preliminaries 200 breaststroke.

Copland earned an automatic qualification for the event with a seventh place finish of 2:15.71 (SC) at the Pacific-10 Championships (March 1). The qualifying standard for the U.S. Nationals is 2:18.29 (SC).

At the meet, Copland also swam a preliminary time of 1:14.78 in the 100m breaststroke. She went on to improve her mark by time trialing in 1:14.60. Her personal best in the event is 1:14.50.

Prior to the Cougar swimming season, Copland made an impact at the Pan Pacific Swimming Championships as she competed against world-class swimmers from several different countries.

The highlight of the Pan Pac's for Copland was her performance in the 200m breaststroke. Copland finished 15th in the event with a time of 2:36.40.
