A friendly environment

The Pullman campus straddles College Hill in Pullman, a college town of 25,000 located among the rolling hills of the Palouse region of eastern Washington. The University is the largest residential university west of the Mississippi, which enhances the friendly, traditional collegiate atmosphere for which WSU is known.

WSU is located within easy traveling distance of Spokane and Coeur d'Alene to the north. Seattle and Portland are less than 300 miles to the west.

Enter the future with the confidence that comes from real preparation.

As an athlete, you know that if you've practiced hard you feel more confident for a big game. At WSU, the education you receive together with the programs available and great faculty provide you with that same confidence for the biggest game of all—your future. The education gives you the skills to be critical thinkers and initiators, important skills in any endeavor you decide upon. Students can immerse themselves in a variety of learning situations, ranging from high levels of interaction with professors to hands-on research projects and community and public service activities. The newest technology, numerous leadership opportunities, and study abroad programs further enrich the WSU college experience.

Dedicated to diversity

Washington State University seeks to enrich every student's educational experience through exposure to different cultures, philosophies, and scholarly perspectives. This atmosphere of interchange and inquiry is fostered through programs that can take students around the globe or to a quiet corner on campus for a discussion with a new-found friend offering a different point of view.

Diversity is a priority at Washington State University. You will meet students from around the world and from other American cultural backgrounds. Enrich your education by enjoying the ethnic music, speakers, and discussions; foreign film series; and cultural celebrations. Take part in a host of other activities sponsored by the many student organizations, which include the Arab, Chinese, Filipino, Japanese, Italian, Hawaiian, Native American, and Pacific Islander student clubs and several African American fraternities and sororities.

Office of Minority Affairs

African American, Asian/Pacific American, Hispanic American, and Native American students find support in each of the ethnic centers. The centers were established to address the academic, cultural, social, and ethnic needs and concerns of minority students. Qualified professional counselors and trained peer mentors are on staff.

Office of Multicultural Student Services

At the Multicultural Center, students of all backgrounds share the richness of their cultures and sponsor multicultural programs for the entire WSU community. The Center also serves as a base for academic support and social activity.

WSU is nationally recognized for its extensive program in international education. More than 30 exchange programs; study abroad programs in more than 20 countries; and internships in Europe, Asia, and the Middle East are available.
