Indoor/Outdoor WSU Tennis Facilities

Washington State University tennis facilities have seen some major upswing over the past two years with the addition of a new outdoor tennis center and the renovation of the Cougars' indoor facilities.

In the spring of 2007, a new outdoor tennis center was completed and serves as the outdoor home of Cougar tennis. The facility is named the WSU Outdoor Tennis Center and hosted its first matches during the fall of 2007.

The state-of-the-art facility features 12 lighted courts, an adjacent clubhouse, PlexiPave tennis surface, and improved spectator viewing areas.

The indoor tennis facility in Hollingbery Fieldhouse received a renovation in the fall of 2006. The facility has served a variety of purposes for WSU Athletics over the years as the indoor training facility for tennis, track and field, rowing, and baseball, now the women's tennis team is the primary resident of the facility.

During the renovation the number of courts was decreased from five to four which allows for the maximum amount area between courts. An upgraded lighting system allows for multiple light levels depending upon scheduled events. The system is on a sensor that allows the lights to maximize energy efficiency while maintaining consistent light level throughout the facility. PlexiPave was also the surface laid down which made the facilities meet NCAA and Pac-10 standards for play.

Along with the upgrades the tennis facility has been named "The Simmelink Courts at Hollingbery Fieldhouse" in honor of Cougar supporter and donor Audrey Simmelink.

Coaches

Lisa Hart

Head Coach
Fifth Year

Lisa Hart enters her fifth season as the Washington State University head women's tennis coach.

Last season, Hart guided her squad to a 14-11 overall record; the winning record is the second straight for the Cougars for the first time since the 1994-95 season and 1995-96 season. The Pacific-10 Conference schedule was highlighted by a 4-3 victory over the No. 23 Oregon Ducks. The win marks the highest ranked opponent the Cougars have beaten since the 2003 season where they beat Oregon who was also ranked No. 23 at the time.

The Cougars' 2007 schedule was to be one of the toughest the women's tennis team had ever faced. WSU played 13 nationally-ranked opponents, emerging victorious in four of those contests: No. 30 BYU, No. 47 Sacramento State, No. 54 Alabama, and No. 23 Oregon. During the season Hart guided the Cougars to three different three-match winning streaks.

The 2006-07 Cougar team started off the year ranked No. 66 nationally. The dual-match season began with a five match winning streak which propelled the Cougars to a No. 56 ranking. Wins over No. 30 BYU and No. 47 Sacramento State helped them jump to a season-high No. 41 ranking. The Cougars ended the season ranked No. 50.

Under Hart, Marjolein van de Ven won 24 matches for the Cougars, tying her for fifth all time on the Cougars single-season record list. Ekaterina Burduli captured 23 wins for the Cougars, tying her for ninth all time, while pushing her career total to 63, one shy of the Cougars' top 10 list.

During the 2005-06 season, Coach Hart led the Cougars to a season high ranking of No. 69. The season was highlighted by three victories over ranked opponents No. 73 Boise State, No. 75 Loyola Marymount and No. 61 South Alabama. Coach Hart led the Cougars to their first winning season since 2000-01 with a record of 14-12.

During the 2004-05 season, Hart led the Cougars to a season high ranking of No. 64, bolstered by upsets wins over nationally-ranked San Diego and Santa Clara. The season ended with a 9-14 record and included notable wins against Cal State Northridge, Montana, and Idaho. The Cougars took three nationally-ranked teams to the wire, losing 4-3 to No. 25 BYU, No. 44 Iowa and No. 73 Colorado.

During the 2003-04 season, Hart's first at WSU, the Cougars were ranked No. 51 and captured three wins over ranked opponents. WSU's biggest victory came at No. 23 Oregon in mid-March. The Cougars also defeated Oklahoma State and San Diego State, both ranked in the top 50 nationally at the time.

During Hart's tenure with the Cougars she has been dedicated to community outreach. She was selected as the winner of the 2004, 2005 and 2006 Community Service Award by the United States Tennis Association and Intercollegiate Tennis Association. The award is to honor ITA coaches for their significant contributions in developing community based tennis programs through community centers, schools, parks, community tennis associations, inner city, suburban or rural programs.

Currently, Hart is the chairperson of the ITA Northwest Regional Committee and the representative for the ITA National Operating Committee for the Northwest Region.

Prior to WSU, Hart spent three seasons at Virginia Tech where she guided the Hokies to a 45-36 record in three seasons including third-place finishes each year in the Big East Conference.

During the 2002-03 season, Hart's Virginia Tech squad concluded the year ranked 69th nationally and eighth in the East region. The Hokies posted victories over No. 27 Oregon, No. 65 Marshall, No. 66 Middle Tennessee State, No. 67 Florida Atlantic and No. 72 Penn State. Hart was a member of the International Tennis Association (ITA) East Region committee from 2001-03 and chaired the committee in 2002-03. The East Region is the largest region in the United States with over 80 schools.

Prior to Virginia Tech, Hart served as the assistant women's tennis coach at the University of Nebraska for two years. While on the Nebraska staff, she helped the Cornhuskers compile a two year record of 36-13, including a 19-5 record in 2000.

Hart was a tennis standout at Nebraska, finishing her career as one of the most successful women's tennis players in school history. She recorded 74 career singles victories winning the Big 12 Conference No. 2 singles title as a senior.

Hart, the 1995 Big Eight Freshman of the Year, was the first women's tennis player at Nebraska to win a conference singles title since 1978 and only the sixth player in Cornhuskers' history. She was selected to the all-conference team twice and upon graduation her 74 wins ranked No. 3 on the school's career singles victory list.

Her dedication and excellence on the court was matched in the classroom as Hart was a three-time academic all-conference selection, earning first-team academic All-Big 12 honors as a senior. She was selected by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association as the Central Region's "Cissie Learie Sportsmanship Award" winner, one of six throughout the country. As a senior, Hart also received the Arthur Ashe Sportsmanship and Leadership Award.

A native of Sunnyside, Wash., Hart had an outstanding high school career at Sunnyside High where she was a three-time State champion. She also earned All-America honors as a high school sophomore. Hart earned a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Nebraska and also holds a master's degree in education with an emphasis in physical education and sports studies from Nebraska.

Hart and her husband John, an attorney, reside in Pullman with their one-year-old daughter, Mary Beth, and their bassett hound, Daphne.

Courtney Steinbock

Assistant Coach
Second Year

Courtney Steinbock enters her second season as the assistant tennis coach for Washington State University.

During the 2006-07, her first season with the Cougars she helped the women's tennis team to a 14-11 record. Alongside coach Lisa Hart, she guided the team to their second straight winning season.

Steinbock spent three seasons as the volunteer women's tennis assistant at her alma mater, University of Kansas. She will assist head coach Lisa Hart in all aspects of the Cougar Tennis Program.

Steinbock graduated from the University of Kansas in 2004 and was a stellar player for the Jayhawks. Holding down the top spot in singles and doubles as a senior, Steinbock concluded her collegiate career as a two-time MVP and a member of the Big XII First Team All-Conference and named Big XII Player of the Week twice.

While at Kansas, Steinbock had the opportunity to play with teammate and twin sister, Kristen. The Steinbock twins were paired for several matches throughout their careers, and most notably defeated the seventh-ranked team from Oklahoma State, Linda Flatynkova and Katia Kolodynsva, 8-2, in dual match play. The two also reached the semifinal at the Intercollegiate Tennis Association Central Regional.

"I have always admired Courtney's work ethic and enthusiasm, both as a player and a person, and believe her contributions will greatly enhance our program," WSU Head Coach Lisa Hart said.

Steinbock graduated with a bachelor's degree in general studies from Kansas.

WOMEN'S TENNIS SEASON PREVIEW

Following a 2007 campaign in which the Cougars posted their second straight winning season, optimism runs high for the 2008 Washington State tennis team. Last season WSU compiled a 14-11 record, for the second season in a row they won 14 matches and will look to continue their success in 2008.

Entering her fifth year as the Cougars head coach, Lisa Hart has the program moving in the right direction. Having posted back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1994-95 and 1995-96 season, Hart is ready for the next step, an appearance at the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 2002 season.

"We are looking to continue to build upon the success of past seasons," said Hart. "We missed the NCAA tournament by one spot last year so our goal is to show the selection committee that we deserve to be included this year. We want to leave no doubt that we belong among the country's elite."

Last season's success came with steady development throughout the season. This year's squad looks to make similar progress in order to be in a position to challenge their toughest competition in their dual match season.

"We are returning four of our six top players from last season's team, their experiences from last season are pushing them to do better this year," said Hart. "The team chemistry is as good as ever, with great leadership from our upper classmen, they are some of the best leaders I have ever seen."

WSU returns half of the team from last year's squad with five letter winners along with five new freshmen comprising the Cougar roster. Seniors, Ekaterina Burduli, Aleksandra Stefanova ("Alex") and Kara Konomos return to help lead the Cougars. The trio gives the Cougars experience, strength and leadership for the program, qualities that will benefit WSU throughout the season.

Burduli, a Tel Aviv, Israel native, finished her 2007 campaign with 23 wins which was good for second on the Cougars squad. The 23 wins ties her for ninth all time on the WSU single season wins list. She defeated two nationally-ranked players last year.

Last fall Burduli captured the singles title at the BYU Invitational and advanced to the Round of 16 at the ITA Northwest Regional Tournament.

"Eka is one of the most determined and competitive leaders I have ever coached," said Hart. "She has proved that she can beat anyone at any time and her play is critical for our success. She is an outstanding leader on and off the court as well as a role model for everyone on the team."

Aleksandra Stefanova ("Alex") a native of Skopje, Macedonia, is one of three seniors on the team. She finished the season with 16 wins which is good for fourth best on the team. She battled against two nationally ranked opponents and was the runner up at the BYU Invitational-Flight B.

HEAD COACH

Lisa Hart (Nebraska, 1998)-Fifth Year

ASSISTANT COACH

Courtney Steinbock (Kansas, 2004)-Second Year

"Alex leads by example with her exceptional work ethic," said Hart. "In addition, her experience will serve us well throughout the season."

Kara Konomos a senior from Auburn, Washington enters her final season of her Cougar career, she is one of the great leaders on this women's tennis team. Her experience, attitude, knowledge of the game and consistency on the court will be a big part of the Cougars success this season.

"Kara is an outstanding leader on this team," said Hart. "Her work ethic is incredible, she always has a smile on her face and is beaming with positive energy which rubs off on the rest of the players."

Junior returnees Aleksandra Cekic ("Sasha") and Bianca Selaru will provide depth to the Cougar lineup.

Cekic, a junior from London, Ontario, Canada will be one of the top players on this year's team. She compiled 13 wins last season playing in the middle of the Cougar line up. She played most in the No. 4 spot but found most success in the No. 6 spot where Cekic went 4-0. With the experience that she gained last year, she will be ready for a good season this year.

"Sasha is a very talented player and will really help this team," said Hart. "She can play with anyone at an extremely high level and compete with anyone in the country."

A junior from Zalau, Romania, Selaru is poised to have a great season. Being plagued by injuries the last two seasons, she has rebounded and with hard work is ready to help the Cougars get to the NCAA tournament. As a freshman she led the team with a 66.7 winning percentage. Last year she won six matches for the team and will be a key contributor this year.

"Bianca has had some injuries early in her career as a Cougar," said Hart. "But she has proven early on that she is a fierce competitor and is ready to prove that this year. She clinched the BYU dual match for us last year with a huge win and she is ready to come out and prove to everyone what she can do."

The Cougars will look for support and depth from the five freshmen that have joined the team this year. Ekaterina Kamendova, Jessica Gomez, Livia Gherman, Marina Nicolas and Jessica Casebier will all contribute to the success of the WSU tennis team this year. They will be expected to jump in and start playing at a high level.

Ekaterina Kamendova a native of Moscow, Russia has held junior age group rankings as high as No. 4 in 2003. She has won multiple national tournaments which will help her adjust to playing college level tennis. Jessica Gomez, from Monterrey, Mexico, has accomplished a top 10 ranking for her age group as well as playing in the Mexican Olympics. A native of Zalau, Romania, Livia Gherman will be asked to step up with the rest of the freshmen and contribute to the Cougars season.

Marina Nicolas from Zaragoza, Spain, has held senior Spanish Rankings as high as No. 65 in 2006. She has won multiple championships in Spain and will be a key to the success of the team. From Newman Lake, Wash., Jessica Casebier played in the 3A State tournament while winning numerous tournaments. Her success over the past couple years will contribute and add new talent to the roster.

"This team is bursting with youth and potential," said Hart. "Each of our new players has the ability to develop into leaders on and off the court. We expect all of them to contribute this year so we need to use our fall season to our advantage in order to gain the experience our younger players need heading into the dual match season."

"Our five returning players are serving as great leaders and role models for our five freshmen," said Hart. "Their experience will be crucial to our success this season."

The Cougars' first challenge will be the difficult schedule set before them. In addition to the always difficult Pacific-10 slate, the Cougars face a non-conference schedule of six teams ranked nationally at the end of the 2007 season. And, true to the Pac-10's slogan "A Conference of Champions," WSU's conference schedule includes six teams ranked in the top-20 last year.

"Without a doubt, the Pac-10 is the strongest tennis conference in the country," said Hart. "Three of the four teams in the final four from last year were from the Pac-10. Each team in the Pac-10 Conference competes for the national championship every year. If you're going to play, you might as well play with the best, our goal this year is to prove that we are one of the best teams in the country."

"Our schedule will test us every week of the season," said Hart. "However, it also gives us several opportunities to solidify our position among the nation's best programs."

The Simmelink Tennis Courts at Hollingbery Field house on the WSU campus will be the sight for all indoor home tennis matches this season. The venue features four courts resurfaced with the PlexiPave Surface system, and upgraded lighting that meets NCAA competition standards.

In the spring of 2007, the Cougars new outdoor facility was completed, featuring 12 outdoor lighted courts along with a clubhouse, new PlexiPave surface and new viewing areas for the spectators. The facility is now named the WSU Outdoor Tennis Center. The facility replaces the Stadium Way Tennis Center, which had been home to Cougar tennis for over 30 years.

"Our new indoor and outdoor facilities have been huge for our program," said Hart. "It is nice to have a place to play on campus and it helps with our fan base. The support we have received from our athletic administration and the supporters of our program and players has been astounding. We hope to build upon the successes we have had over the past years and make 2008 the best year yet in Cougar Tennis History!"

Pac-10 & 2008 Opponents

Pacific-10 Conference

Entering the 2007-08 season, the Pacific-10 Conference continues to uphold its tradition as the "Conference of Champions." Pac-10 members have claimed an incredible 146 NCAA team titles over the past 17 seasons, for an average of more than eight championships per academic year.

Even more impressive is the breadth of the Pac-10's success, as those 146 team titles have come in 24 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-10 has led the nation in NCAA Championships 41 of the last 47 years and finished second five times.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievement, the Pac-10 has captured 359 NCAA titles (254 men's, 105 women's), far outdistancing the runner-up Big Ten Conference's 212 titles.

The Conference's reputation is further proven in the annual United States Sports Academy Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. STANFORD continued its remarkable run in the 2006-07 season, winning its 13th consecutive Directors' Cup. In the 2006-07 competition, seven of the Top-25 Division I programs were Pac-10 members: No. 1 STANFORD, No. 2 UCLA, No. 5 CALIFORNIA, No. 6 USC, No. 17 ARIZONA STATE, No. 27 ARIZONA and No. 28 WASHINGTON. The Pac-10 landed four programs in the Top-10, two more than the second-place ACC (2), Big Ten (2) and SEC (3).

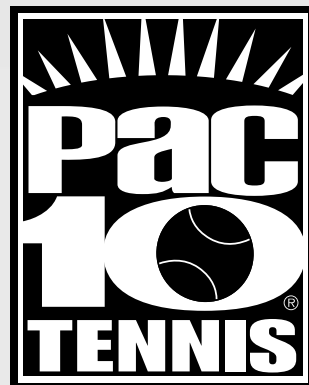

The Pac-10 captured eight NCAA titles in 2006-07 to lead the nation. It should be noted that the Pac-10 total does not include CALIFORNIA's national championship in rugby or Washington's National championship in men's crew, as they are not counted as NCAA titles. The Pac-10 led the nation with the most NCAA titles in women's sports with five.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Conference in 2006-07. Of the 22 sports sponsored by the Pac-10, 19 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 62 of a possible 90 teams into the postseason (68.1 percent), while the women sent 74 of a possible 100 teams (74.0 percent).

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 26 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 18 occasions. Overall, the Pac-10 has captured 105 NCAA women's crowns, easily outdistancing the Southeastern Conference, which is second with 70. Pac-10 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 19 softball titles, 17 tennis crowns, 11 of the last 17 volleyball titles, 11 of the last 18 trophies in golf and eight in swimming and diving.

Pac-10 women athletes shine nationally on an individual basis as well, having captured an unmatched 484 NCAA individual titles, an average of more than 18 champions per season.

A friendly environment

The Pullman campus straddles College Hill in Pullman, a college town of 25,000 located among the rolling hills of the Palouse region of eastern Washington. The University is the largest residential university west of the Mississippi, which enhances the friendly, traditional collegiate atmosphere for which WSU is known.

WSU is located within easy traveling distance of Spokane and Coeur d' Alene to the north. Seattle and Portland are less than 300 miles to the west.

World class. Face to face.

At Washington State University you will work face to face with world-class professors. The University has ten colleges and offers over 250 fields of study spanning the liberal arts and sciences, as well as architecture, business, education, nursing, pharmacy, agriculture, engineering, and veterinary medicine.

Enter the future with the confidence that comes from real preparation.

As an athlete, you know that if you've practiced hard you feel more confident for a big game. At WSU, the education you receive, together with the programs available and great faculty, provides you with that same confidence for the biggest game of all—your future. The education gives you the skills to be critical thinkers and initiators, important skills in any endeavor you decide upon. Students can immerse themselves in a variety of learning situations, ranging from high levels of interaction with professors to hands-on research projects and community and public service activities. The newest technology, numerous leadership opportunities, and study abroad programs further enrich the WSU college experience.

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY

Washington State University

Washington State University seeks to enrich every student's educational experience through exposure to different cultures, philosophies, and scholarly perspectives. This atmosphere of interchange and inquiry is fostered through various campus programs, diversity in the curriculum, and comfortable places around campus to meet and talk with students with different backgrounds. All students are encouraged to study abroad for a semester to experience life in another country. But you don't need to leave campus to find opportunities to learn about differences as there are numerous events, films, musicians, and speakers throughout the year that address issues of equity and diversity.

Office of the Vice President for Equity and Diversity

Given the importance of making WSU a welcoming and supportive place for everyone, the Office of the Vice President for Equity and Diversity was established in 2004. This office worked with students, faculty, and staff at all WSU locations to develop a university-wide Strategic Plan for Equity and Diversity. In accordance with this plan, goals have been established and work is underway to increase the diversity and retention rates among students and faculty, improve the campus climate for underrepresented students, infuse diversity into university leadership and management, provide increased educational/scholarship opportunities, and devise better methods of assessment and accountability for diversity progress. More information about the Office of the Vice President for Equity and Diversity and the Strategic Plan can be found by visiting www.diversity.wsu.edu/.

Student-Athlete Development

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

Our Student-Athlete Development unit initiates support for academic and personal success during on-campus recruiting visits with prospective student-athletes, and continues providing support and services until student-athletes graduate from WSU. Our student-athlete development staff is committed to developing and implementing comprehensive and effective programs to assist student-athletes in identifying and meeting their academic and career goals leading to graduation and career development. We take a "life skills" approach when assisting student-athletes with class selection, major selection, graduation planning, career development, time management, goal setting, study skills, and learning strategies.

Our focus is the student-athlete and her personal development. We reinforce the value of maximizing the educational and career opportunities at WSU. And, most importantly, our staff emphasizes the importance of student-athletes taking personal responsibility and ownership in developing their academic and career plans. Our 92 percent graduation rate for those seniors who have exhausted their eligibility (over the past 10 years) reflects our consistent commitment to academic success while striking a balance between academics and athletics.

Danny Gourley Academic Counselor

Danny Gourley, Academic Resource Center Coordinator, joined the Cougar family in 2005. Gourley supervises and maintains the ARC and provides academic support to the WSU Tennis and Swim teams.

His experience in academics began in 1997, and all but two and a half years of his academic counseling have been in athletics. Starting as a tutor for student-athletes at Middle Tennessee State University, Danny progressed to Learning Specialist from 1999-2002. After two and a half years of career development serving soldiers as an intern in the Army Continuing Education System, Danny has returned to athletics.

Danny graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 1999 with a Bachelor of Arts in English. He completed his Masters in Education with an emphasis in administration of higher education at MTSU in 2002.

Danny values spending time with his wife, Sarah, and young daughter, Cirel, and enjoys video games, hiking and backyard sports.

Prevention of athletic injuries is the number one goal of WSU's athletic medicine staff, along with care and rehabilitation. When injuries do occur, the Cougar staff provides the very best in care and use of state-of-the-art equipment to return the student-athlete to 100 percent recovery.

Cougar Women's Athletics Show Strength at Conference and National Levels

In 2006-07, Washington State University women student-athletes enjoyed success in and out of the classroom. Erin McCleave (swimming) earned All-American honors in the 200-meter and 1650-meter freestyle, Diana and Julie Pickler both achieved All-American status (indoor track) in the pentathlon, and Julie Pickler and McKenzie Garberg (outdoor track) garnered All-American certificates in the heptathlon and discus, respectively. Rowing's Sarah Waterfield was named All-Pacific-10 First Team.

Academically, Washington State women earned 77 all-conference selections, including 20 first team awards. In addition, Kate Benz (women's basketball first team), Carey Homan (at-large first team) and Brooke Bemis (soccer third team) were honored as all-district VIII selections by CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine. Homan and teammates Becca Gibson, Tiana Rodriguez and Catherine Watt were named Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association National Scholar-Athletes and Diana Hong was selected National Golf Coaches Association First Team.

Kelly Rosin

Kelly Rosin became the ninth Cougar to reach 1,000 kills in volleyball and finished her career ranked fifth on the Washington State all-time list with 1,113. Freshman libero Kelly Hyder set a single-season school record for digs with 565.

Haley Paul and Sara Trane earned All-Pacific-10 Academic First Team selections in cross country and four others were named honorable mention.

Brynn Bemis

The Cougar soccer team tied a school record with 10 shutouts and set the standard for fewest goals allowed in a season at 15. Brynn Bemis tallied seven shutouts in net and the team posted its third consecutive winning season under head coach Matt Potter.

Benz finished her women's basketball career as Washington State's career leader in rebounds with 899 and added 1,000 points to become the 11th Cougar to reach the plateau.

Haley Paul

Kate Benz

Erin McCleave

McCleave became the second Cougar swimmer to earn All-American status multiple times in her career. Her efforts placed Washington State 34th at the NCAA Championships. She set five school and five Gibb Pool records during the season.

The Pickler sisters not only earned All-American certificates in indoor track, but they carried Washington State to a tie for 27th place at the NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships. At the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships, Julie Pickler placed second in the heptathlon with 5,831 points, the third highest total in Washington State history. Garberg's first All-American honor helped the Cougars tie for 27th place.

Julie Pickler

Amy Eneroth

The Cougar women's golf team earned a NCAA regional bid for the sixth straight season and was within six shots of qualifying for the NCAA Championships. Amy Eneroth posted a 74.8 stroke average, the fourth best in school history.

The 14 wins posted by the Washington State women's tennis team were the most in head coach Lisa Hart's four-year tenure.

Marjolein van de Ven won 24 matches to tie for fourth on the Washington State single-season list and she became the fourth Cougar to post back-to-back 20-win seasons.

Sarah Waterfield

Led by Waterfield, the Washington State women's rowing varsity eight boat was ranked as high as eighth nationally and the Cougars defeated Washington for the third straight time and the fourth time in school history.

University Administration

ELSON S. FLOYD

PRESIDENT

Elson S. Floyd is Washington State University's 10th president. He took office in the summer of July after serving as president of the four-campus University of Missouri during 2002-2007.

"Affordability, accessibility and accountability" are keystones to his administration leading WSU. He puts high priority on WSU being a research leader and having a global presence. Furthermore, he endorses diversity of thought, opinion, perspective, viewpoints, race and ethnicity as characteristics of a world-class university.

Floyd, 51, served as president of Western Michigan University from 1999 to 2002, and held several administrative positions at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, including deanships in student affairs and the College of Arts and Sciences.

Previously, he spent two years as executive director of the state of Washington Higher Education

Coordinating Board, the agency responsible for statewide coordination, planning, oversight, policy analysis and student financial aid programs for Washington's post-secondary education system. From 1990 to 1993, he served as vice president for student services, vice president for administration and executive vice president at Eastern Washington University.

He began his career in 1978 at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he held deanships in the Division of Student Affairs, the General College and the College of Arts and Sciences. From 1988 to 1990, he was assistant vice president for student services for the UNC system office, where he helped develop and articulate student affairs and academic affairs policy for the 16-campus university system.

A native of Henderson, N.C., Floyd holds a bachelor of arts degree in political science and speech, a master of education degree in adult education, and a doctor of philosophy degree in higher and adult education, all from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Floyd and his wife, Carmento Floyd, have two grown children.

ANNE M'COY

SENIOR ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS/SWA

Veteran intercollegiate athletics administrator Anne McCoy has served Washington State University since 2001, and was promoted from associate director to senior associate director of athletics in 2004. Her appointment to senior woman administrator came in the summer of 2007.

In her capacity as senior associate director of athletics, she is charged with overseeing all aspects of WSU's athletic budget and supervises several areas within the department including the business office, equipment, computer and football operations, and event management and facility operations. She also serves as a liaison for men's and women's basketball.

McCoy serves on several Pacific-10 Conference committees including the Executive Committee as vice president-elect for the Pac-10 Council, and on the Medical Care, Student-Athlete Advisory and Senior Woman Administrator committees.

A Wisconsin native, McCoy earned a bachelor's degree in sports management in 1989 from the University of Massachusetts. While an undergraduate, she worked for the Pittsburgh Penguins professional hockey organization, expanding the club's season ticket base and maintained existing corporate and individual accounts. McCoy also served an internship as the assistant athletic business manager at the University of Connecticut, and was instrumental in designing and implementing a comprehensive computerized budget-tracking system for the Huskies' athletic department.

McCoy served in several capacities at the University of Maine from 1989-1995, lastly as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator. At Maine, she supervised men's basketball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's swimming and softball in addition to the athletic business office, ticket office, retail store and cheerleading staff and operations. She took a similar administrative position at the St. Louis University from 1995-1996.

In 1996, McCoy moved west, joining the staff at Portland State University as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator. She was promoted to senior associate director of athletics in 1998. At PSU, she managed all internal staff and the daily operations of the department, representing the director of athletics as needed. McCoy also supervised men's and women's golf, cross country/track and field, and women's volleyball, soccer, tennis and softball.

McCoy and her husband Brian have two children, daughter Taylor and son Jake.

JIM STERK

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Washington native James M. Sterk was appointed Washington State University's director of athletics in June of 2000. In his six years, Sterk has seen unprecedented growth and success by the Cougars' 17 intercollegiate teams and 450 individuals who compete for WSU annually.

On the academic front, WSU earned 113 selections to Pacific-10 Conference All-Academic teams in 2004-05. That figure represented the most student-athletes to earn such an honor during an academic year in school history. WSU nearly reached this standard in 2005-06 with 109 selections to conference all-academic teams.

On the field, Cougar Athletics has enjoyed extraordinary achievements highlighted by three consecutive 10-win seasons by the football program from 2001-03. Most recently, 10 sports were represented either as a team or individually in NCAA postseason competition during the 2005-06 season. Featured in this group was the rowing team's fourth place finish at the NCAA Championships, the highest finish ever by a WSU women's team in NCAA postseason competition.

Facility improvements have also been among projects Sterk has tackled. Following the 2006 football season, the initial phases of a renovation to Martin Stadium, the home of Cougar football, will commence. WSU recently completed a major baseball field renovation, becoming the first collegiate field to feature FieldTurf as a playing surface. In addition, plans are underway for an ambitious capital improvement plan that will enhance many other WSU sport facilities.

A 1980 graduate of Western Washington University, Sterk received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. His professional career has included positions at North Carolina, Maine, Seattle Pacific, Tulane and Portland State, the latter as director of athletics for five years before joining the Cougar staff.

The foundation of Sterk's leadership plan is based on five areas: the student-athlete experience, resource acquisition, personnel, political dynamics, and facilities. All five areas have enjoyed growth in his first six years at Washington State University.

Sterk currently is a member of the prestigious NCAA Championship/Competition cabinet and has served on numerous Pacific-10 Conference committees during his tenure at WSU.

KEN CASAVANT

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Professor Ken Casavant, a member of the Washington State University family since 1967, currently serves as WSU's Faculty Athletics Representative to the Pacific-10 Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association. He is a past president of the Pac-10 and was recently chosen to serve on the NCAA Division I Management Council.

Casavant came to WSU as a graduate research assistant in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics. He was named an assistant professor in 1971, an associate professor in 1975 and a full professor in 1980.

In 2004, Casavant received the honor of giving the Distinguished Faculty Address, the University's oldest award and also received the Sahlin Excellence in Public Service award for the University. In 1979, Casavant received the R.M. Wade award for outstanding teacher in the college of agriculture at WSU, and in 1990, he earned the distinguished WSU Faculty of the Year award. Casavant was elected vice-chair (1991-92) and chair (1992-93) of the WSU Faculty Senate and has been accorded the Distinguished Teacher award by the American Agricultural Economics Association. He was named Distinguished Scholar by the Western Agricultural Economics Association in 2003 for his nationally recognized work as a transportation economist.

During his tenure at WSU, Casavant has served as associate director for the Washington State Transportation Center (1984-87) and the interim Vice-Provost for Academic Affairs and interim Vice-Provost for Research (1998).

The North Dakota native is a 1965 graduate of North Dakota State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural economics. He received his master's degree from NDSU, followed by a Ph.D., from WSU in 1971.

Ken and his wife Dorothy have two grown daughters, Michele and Colette.
