ALEX BRINK ARA SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

Former Washington State quarterback Alex Brink was the 2007 recipient of the ARA Sportsmanship Award, presented annually by the Awards and Recognition Association. The national award is presented each year to the NCAA Division I college football player who most exemplifies sportsmanship on and off the field.

Brink was selected from 10 finalists representing schools across the country. Previous winners of the award include Carolina Panthers running back DeAngelo Williams (Memphis) and St. Louis Rams running back Brian Leonard (Rutgers).

Brink, who ended his career as WSU's career record-holder in passing yards, touchdowns, completions, attempts and total offense, was also one of 15 recipients of the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award and a finalist for the Draddy Award, entitling him to an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship. The Draddy Award annually recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary community leadership.

Brink was a two-time finalist for the Wuerffel Trophy, which honors the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with outstanding academic and athletic achievement.

WSU 14, BROWN 0

A crowd of 10,000 was on hand at the Pasadena Rose Bowl January 1 to watch as undefeated Washington State took on eastern power Brown University in the first of the continuous Rose Bowls. WSU used third and fourth quarter touchdown runs by Ralph Boone and Carl Dietz to shutout the Bruins 14-0. Brown entered the game a two-to-one favorite, despite a modest 5-3-1 record. The Bruins' 3-0 win over Yale was the key accomplishment that earned the Rhode Island team an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl. A cold spell, followed by a heavy rain and some snow for three days prior to the game, turned the playing field into a sea of mud that slowed both teams. Brown came close to scoring twice in the first half, but each time Washington State's defense, which had allowed just one field goal and one touchdown all season, rose to the task and halted the Bruins short of the goal line, once at the four yard line. Bruin star Fritz Pollard gained just 47 yards in 13 carries. Pollard later became the first black named to a Walter Camp All-America team and was the first black head coach in the National Football League. In the second half WSU's size advantage began to pay off as the Cougars took command, scoring once in each quarter. WSU's preparation for the game had been, to say the least, odd. Coach William "Lone Star" Dietz, out of the Carlisle Indian School, and his Cougar squad served as extras in the football film "Tom Brown of Harvard" each morning, then practiced for the bowl game during the afternoon. Each WSU player earned $100 for the 14 mornings of movie work. During practice sessions, Dietz appeared in his "classic" coaching attire: a silk hat, Prince Albert cutaway coat, striped pants, yellow gloves, and a walking stick. Originally known as the Pasadena Tournament of Roses East-West game (it was 1923 when the real Rose Bowl facility was completed that the name changed), the WSU-Brown game was played at Tournament Park.

Washington State University's undefeated 1915 team met eastern power Brown University in the 1916 Rose Bowl and won 14-0, completing an undefeated season. The 1916 game was the first of the continuous Rose Bowl contests.

ALABAMA 24, WSU 0

The Alabama Crimson Tide used a second-quarter blitz, including touchdown runs of one and 43 yards by quarterback Monk Campbell, to post a 24-0 win over previously undefeated Washington State in the 17th Rose Bowl game, viewed by 65,000 fans. Alabama's coach was Wallace Wade, who had been a member of the Brown University team that lost to WSU in the 1916 Rose Bowl. Wade, during his career, coached in five Rose Bowls.

"Babe" Hollingbery's fifth Cougar team went a perfect 9-0-0 to earn a Rose Bowl berth in 1930, including a 6-0 mark during the Pacific Coast Conference schedule. Included in the list of Cougar victims were California 16-0, USC 7-6, Washington 3-0 and Villanova 13-0. Two members of the WSU team later earned recognition in the College Football Hall of Fame, Mel Hein and Glen "Turk" Edwards.

#14 BYU 38, #20 WSU 36

Three games in one was more than the 52,000-plus fans at San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium paid for, but three games is what they saw as the Brigham Young Cougars held on to defeat the Washington State Cougars 38-36. The BYU squad won the first game, a 31-minute affair that generated a 31-7 lead for the team from Provo. The next 25 minutes just as convincingly belonged to WSU 29-7. In the end, however, the game belonged to BYU as much for defense as anything. They stopped the Pullman team with just over three minutes to play by forcing a punt, then ran out the clock to preserve the win. Jim McMahon, in his last collegiate game, completed 27 of 43 passes for 342 yards and three touchdowns. More importantly, he did not throw an interception. The WSU Cougars used the running of Don LaBomme and quarterback Ricky Turner to baffle the BYU team, especially in the second half. Turner gained 92 yards in 12 carries and scored twice, while LaBomme added 79 yards in 14 carries and scored once. Robert Williams and Mike Martin also scored for the Cougars. WSU's failure on a two-point conversion late in the third quarter, an interception BYU's Ron Holmoe returned 35 yards for a touchdown on the third play of the third quarter, and a key sack of Casper on WSU's last possession loomed big in a game that had numerous turning points.

#18 WSU 24, #14 HOUSTON 22

Washington State scored 24 second-quarter points and forced a last-second Houston turnover in notching a 24-22 win over the Texan Cougars Christmas Day. The bowl appearance was WSU's second of the 1980s and evened the Cougars bowl record to 2-2. In a close game there are many heroes, but for WSU, none stood out more than senior Victor Wood. He picked up a fumble early in the second quarter and zipped five yards for a touchdown that put his Cougars ahead 7-3. On WSU's next possession, Wood caught a 15-yard scoring pass from Timm Rosenbach to put WSU up 14-3 and well on its way to a bowl victory viewed by a national ABC-TV audience. Wood's heroics were catching as WSU added a Jason Hanson 33-yard field goal and another touchdown, this one by Rosenbach, before halftime to put Washington State in command 24-9. WSU limited the Texas visitors to just five first half firstdowns, 46 yards rushing, and 77 yards passing before intermission. The Cougars picked off two Houston passes, one each by Shawn Landrum and Vernon Todd. In the end, however, it was Tuineau Alipate's hard hit that forced a Houston fumble recovered by Artie Holmes at the WSU five yard line. James Dixon was the recipient of Alipate's jarring tackle after catching a David Dacus pass over the middle that appeared for a moment to set up a potential game-winning score by Houston. The Cougars then controlled the ball for the final 2:44, with a key six-yard Rosenbach to Tim Stallworth pass giving WSU the much-needed first down just before the game ended.

#18 WSU 31, UTAH 28

Perhaps no college bowl game following the 1992 gridiron season was more offensive minded than the Copper Bowl matchup between WSU and Utah, but after all the running and passing that accounted for more than 1,100 yards, the deciding play was a 22-yard field goal by WSU's Aaron Price. The Cougars scored 21 unanswered points in the first quarter and one additional score just before halftime for a 28-14 lead. WSU then held on until Price gave them their final lead with 5:08 to play. Even then, they had to watch anxiously as Chris Yergensen's 20-yard chip shot sailed wildly to the left with 3:18 remaining. Though the 40,000-plus fans left the stadium talking about the offensive plays that stood out, it was WSU's defense in the fourth quarter that made this win possible. The Utes scored twice in the second quarter and added two more scores to pull even with a quarter to play. Both teams then turned to their defenses. The key play came with 6:29 to play when Utah's Frank Dolce avoided a strong WSU rush and hooked up with Henry Lusk on a short sideline pass. John Rushing then stripped Lusk of the ball and Singor Mobley scooped it up at the Utah 36 yard line. Fifteen yards later, at the Utah 21, Mobley was dragged down, setting up the Cougars with great field position. Drew Bledsoe immediately drove the Cougars to the Utah five yard line before turning the scoring chores over to Price. Like he did the closing seconds of WSU's 23-20 win over Arizona in the same stadium early in the season, Price came through with the kick. Bledsoe completed 30 of 46 passes for a school record 476 yards. Phillip Bobo caught TD passes of 87 (equalling a school record) and 48 yards, and Shaumbe Wright-Fair picked up 123 yards rushing and scored on a pair of three-yard line smashes.

#24 WSU 10, BAYLOR 3

The Washington State offense scored on the opening drive of the game and on the last play of the second quarter to provide all the points the Cougar defense needed as WSU held off Baylor's late challenge in a 10-3 win at the second annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl before a crowd of 44,106. Despite some anxious moments in the closing seconds of the game, the Cougar defense made those 10 points stand up by limiting the record-setting Bear offense to eight first downs, 151 yards in total offense and just one field goal. The Cougars did something against Baylor they had not done all season, take the opening kickoff and drive the length of the field for a touchdown. The drive totaled 91 yards, equalling the longest scoring drive of the season, and ended when Kevin Hicks busted through the left side of the line from one yard out to put WSU on top 7-0. The score came six minutes, 32 seconds after the kickoff. WSU's offense provided three more points just before halftime to give the Cougs a 10-0 lead at intermission. Taking the ball after Baylor's Jarvis VanDyke missed his second field goal attempt of the first half, WSU drove from its own 30 yard line to the Baylor 20 yard line, where Tony Truant banged home a 37-yard field goal with two seconds left in the first half. A sideline pass to Jay Dumas for a key first down, then another similar pass to Albert Kennedy put the ball in perfect position for Truant. Davis, named the game's most valuable offensive player, hit six of eight passes on the drive. Davis, who completed 27 of 35 passes for 286 yards, gave Cougar fans a few anxious minutes in the third quarter when he took a hard blow to the back while scrambling out of the pocket. He was able to return one play later and finished the game. Defensively WSU was especially tough in the first half. Baylor came into the game averaging nearly 33 points per game and 382.4 yards per contest. In the first half WSU's defense, led by the game's most valuable defensive player, Ron Childs, limited the Bears to just 41 net yards, 24 rushing and 17 passing. Childs had 10 tackles in the game, including eight solo, of which two were for negative yardage. Only on its last possession did Baylor come close to the WSU endzone, where Todd Jensen, a senior who backed up John Rushing all year, picked off a Jeff Watson pass to halt any Baylor hope of scoring. The bowl victory was WSU's second in the last three years and third in seven years. Joining Childs defensively were Chris Hayes with seven tackles, Mark Fields with six and Chad Eaton with five. Fields and Eaton combined for WSU's only sack, while Torey Hunter also had an interception.

#1 MICHIGAN 21, #8 WSU 16

(January 1, 1998, Pasadena, Calif.): The Washington State Cougars, making their first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years, pushed national champion and number one ranked Michigan to the last play of the game before falling to the Wolverines 21-16 before 101,219 fans and a world-wide television audience. The victory left Michigan a perfect 13-0 for the season, bumping the Cougars to a 10-2 record. After Michigan thwarted two WSU drives to start the game, the Cougar defense forced a Wolverine punt that would set up WSU's first scoring drive. The Cougs took over on the Michigan 47-yard-line with 6:26 to play in the first quarter. Ryan Leaf completed two passes during the drive, including a 15-yard touchdown toss to Kevin McKenzie with 3:17 left in the first quarter. Rian Lindell's point-after gave WSU the early 7-0 advantage. WSU came close to taking a 14-point lead, but Heisman Trophy winner Charles Woodson halted a WSU drive in the Michigan endzone when he intercepted a Leaf pass from the 12 yard line. The Wolverine's answering scoring drive began from their own 34-yard-line at the 8:04 mark in the second quarter and ended with a 58-yard pass from Bob Griese to Tai Streets that completed the first half scoring. Early in the second half, WSU took over 99 yards from the endzone after Michigan's Jason Vinson dropped a perfect punt just outside the endzone. Shawn Tims put the finishing touches on WSU's 99 yard drive in nine plays, taking a reverse handoff the final 14 yards. Leaf hit four of five passes in the drive that amassed 73 yards. Lindell's PAT attempt was blocked by Michigan's James Hall, leaving the WSU advantage at 13-7. The Wolverines responded immediately, moving the ball on their next possession to their 39 yard-line to set up another Griese-to-Streets touchdown combination, this time 58 yards. Baker's point-after gave Michigan their first lead, 14-13 with 6:07 left in the third quarter. Michigan then padded their lead with a 14-play, 77-yard drive that ended in Griese's third touchdown pass of the game, a 23-yarder to Jerame Tuman. Baker's extra-point kick increased the Michigan advantage to 21-13 with 11:21 to play. Washington State responded immediately with an eight-play, 49-yard drive that set up a 48-yard field goal by Lindell, cutting Michigan's lead to five points, 21-16 with 7:25 remaining. The Wolverines then put together a 51-yard drive that consumed almost seven minutes off the game clock. When Jay Feely's pooch punt rolled dead at the WSU seven-yard-line, the Cougars' victory hopes were 93 yards and 29 seconds away. After two incomplete passes, the Cougars faced third-and-10 with only 16 seconds left. Leaf then found Nian Taylor along the sideline for a gain of 46, to the Michigan 47-yard-line. After a delay of game penalty, Leaf hit Love Jefferson at the Michigan 25 and the Cougar tight end lateraled to a streaking Jason Clayton, who managed nine more yards before being brought down in bounds at Michigan's 16 yard line with 0:02 on the game clock. Out of timeouts, WSU was forced to try and spike the ball on first-down, but officials ruled that the final two seconds slipped away before the ball was effectively downed, thus preventing WSU's one final shot at a major upset.

#8 OKLAHOMA 34, #7 WSU 14

January 1, 2003, Pasadena, Calif. – Oklahoma's vaunted defense stifled Washington State's high-flying passing attack and captured the 89th Rose Bowl Game 34-14 in front of 86,848 fans New Year's Day. The Sooners broke the game open with a pair of touchdowns inside the two-minute mark of the first half. The first came on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Nate Hybl, the game's most valuable player. Antonio Perkins extended OU's lead to 17-0 with a 51-yard punt return just :42 seconds later. Hybl connected on 19 of 29 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns. Sooner running back Quentin Griffin carried the ball 30 times for 144 yards. WSU quarterback Jason Gesser finished his career by completing 17 of 34 passes for 240 yards and a touchdown. Sammy Moore provided the game's final highlight, returning an OU kick 89 yards for a score with just 1:15 remaining. Linebacker Teddy Lehman led the Big XII Champions with six tackles, including two sacks, while free safety Erik Coleman recorded 10 tackles and recovered a fumble for the Cougars.

#15 WSU 28, #5 TEXAS 20

December 30, 2003, San Diego, Calif. – Washington State reached the 10-win plateau for the third time in as many seasons with a 28-20 comeback victory over Texas in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl. Facing a 10-7 halftime deficit, the Cougars rallied to score three touchdowns in the third quarter and take a 26-10 lead into the final stanza. The second half fireworks began with a 54-yard touchdown pass from Matt Kegel to Sammy Moore with just over nine minutes left in the third. WSU used a trick play to get in the end zone once again four minutes later. Kegel lined up under center, but instead of taking the snap, ran in motion to the right sideline, leaving running back Jonathan Smith alone in the backfield. Smith fumbled the snap, but recovered and ran 12 yards for a touchdown. Two Texas possessions later, the WSU defense continued the onslaught when Jason David recovered a fumble and took it 18 yards for the Cougs' final touchdown of the game. Washington State's defense forced a fourth quarter safety to push its total to 28. Moore earned most valuable offensive player honors after converting both of his catches for touchdowns and setting up another with a 51-yard punt return. Sophomore Kyle Basler was named the game's most valuable defensive player after pinning the Longhorns inside their own five on four occasions.

Jason Hanson, now a 17-year veteran of the National Football League's Detroit Lions, starred at Washington State as both a kicker and punter from 1988-91, garnering first-team All-America honors three times and first-team academic All-America honors three times.

Over the course of his career, Hanson booted 39 field goals of 40-plus yards, and 20 field goals of 50-plus yards, both of which are NCAA records. In 1991 Hanson's average of field goals made was 50.9 yards, an NCAA single-season record.

In 1991 Hanson nailed a 62-yard field goal at UNLV, which at the time was the longest in NCAA history without the use of a kicking tee. The mark still stands as the longest field goal in WSU history.

During his 2005 campaign, Jerome Harrison set a WSU single-season record with 1,900 rushing yards, including 100-plus yards in all 11 games and four games over 200 yards. Harrison's accolades included being named a consensus All-American and he was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award, given to the nation's leading running back.

DREW BLEDSOE : Prior to becoming the first overall selection of the 1993 NFL Draft, the highest draft position in school history, Drew Bledsoe was an All-American, record-setting WSU quarterback. He finished his three-year career with 7,373 yards passing, 532 completions, 979 attempts and 46 TD passes, marks that each ranked second on WSU's all-time list when he left. He was the Pac-10's Most Valuable Player following his junior season, and finished eighth in the Heisman voting. Playing in the NFL Bledsoe earned four Pro Bowl appearances, was twice named NFL All-Pro and led the New England Patriots to Super Bowl XXXI and Super Bowl XXXVI. In his second pro season Bledsoe set NFL records for pass attempts, became the second quarterback in NFL history to complete 400-or-more passes in a season and led the NFL in passing yards.

ASA V. "ACE" CLARK: The captain of the 1915 Washington State University team that played in the first Rose Bowl and defeated Brown University (14-0) on New Year's Day in 1916, Ace Clark played tackle, center and fullback during his Cougar career. Clark was named one of the tackles on the All-Time Pacific Coast Team for the first 50 years of collegiate football (1869-1919), and went on to serve in the State House of Representatives (1941-49) and was a State Senator from Whitman County from 1949-56.

ALEX BRINK: The latest in an impressive lineage of WSU quarterbacks, Alex Brink broke nearly every career passing record before being drafted by the Houston Texans in 2008. His 1,441 attempts, 848 completions, 10,913 passing yards and 76 touchdowns are all WSU records, and his career completion percentage of .584 ranks second on WSU's all-time list. The four-year starter is the only quarterback in school history with more than 10,000 career passing yards. He completed his career ranked third in Pac-10 history in the statistical category and his career touchdown passes ranked fifth on the conference all-time list. Following his senior season when he led the Pac-10 in passing yardage Brink was drafted in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

CHAD EATON: One of the most dominant interior linemen in school history, Chad Eaton became the third Cougar defensive player to be honored with the Pac-10's Morris Trophy following his senior season, an award given to the league's top defensive lineman. He garnered first-team All-Pac-10 honors as a senior, as well as All-America accolades from both UPI and the AP after recording 69 tackles including 14.5 for-loss and 4.5 sacks. He played in WSU's Copper Bowl victory as a sophomore and the team's Alamo Bowl victory as a senior, and received all-conference honors as a junior. He completed his WSU career with 30.5 TFLs, ranking tied for third in school history, and 10.5 sacks. Following his collegiate playing days, Eaton went on to play 103 games in the NFL including Super Bowl XXXI with the New England Patriots.

STEVE BROUSSARD: The most versatile back in WSU history, Steve Broussard set nine rushing records while at WSU, and his 4,635 all-purpose yards ranked seventh all-time in Pac-10 history. He left the Cougars ranked second in career rushing with 3,054 yards and first in career rushing touchdowns with 33, and his 120 career receptions ranked fifth. His single-season rushing yards as a junior (1,280) and as a senior (1,237) ranked second and third on WSU's all-time list, respectively. Broussard was named Pac-10 Offensive Most Valuable Player following his senior season, and he was selected with the No. 20 pick in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. After playing in the NFL for nine seasons, Broussard went into coaching and he is currently the running backs and special teams coach at WSU.

GLEN "TURK" EDWARDS: One of the greatest collegiate and professional linemen in the history of football, Turk Edwards was an All-American offensive tackle with the Cougars and went on to the NFL where he earned All-Pro honors as a rookie with the Redskins. In college Edwards helped lead the Cougars to the 1931 Rose Bowl against Alabama. Playing professionally from 1932-41, Edwards earned All-Pro status five times and won five league championships. He went on to coach the Redskins for three seasons and eventually became the team's vice president. He is a member of both the College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

HUGH CAMPBELL: The "Phantom of the Palouse", All-American Hugh Campbell is arguably the greatest Cougar receiver in school history, twice leading the NCAA in receiving and racking up 177 catches for 2,459 yards and 22 touchdowns during his Cougar playing days. All three career receiving marks set school records and stood for more than four decades. Campbell went on to play professionally in the Canadian Football League, where he was the receptions leader from 1964-67. He was voted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame after leading the Edmonton Eskimos to nine Grey Cup Championships between his years as a coach and in the front office. He also served as head coach of the Houston Oilers.

MARK FIELDS: Playing only two seasons with the Cougars, Mark Fields cemented his status as one of the most feared linebackers in school history. Fields first played for WSU in 1992 and then sat out the 1993 season. He returned to the squad in 1994 and was the most dominant defensive player in the Pac-10, garnering the conference's Defensive Most Valuable Player award and All-America honors from both UPI and the AP. He was selected with the No. 13 pick in the first round of the NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints, the highest selection for a Cougar linebacker, and went on to play for 10 professional seasons. He racked up 769 career tackles, appeared in two Pro Bowls and played in Super Bowls with both the St. Louis Rams (XXXVI) and the Carolina Panthers (XXXVIII).

JASON GESSER: Cougar career records that had stood for nearly a quarter of a century were no match for Jason Gesser. When he left WSU, Gesser owned WSU career marks with 1,118 attempts, 611 completions, 8,830 passing yards and 70 touchdowns. The All-American and three-time All-Pac-10 honoree finished seventh in Heisman voting and was named co-Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year after his senior season. Gesser's 24 wins as a starting quarterback are more than any other signal-caller in school history and he set a school record by throwing touchdown passes in 25 consecutive games. Following his stellar collegiate career, he went on to play in both the NFL and the Arena League, and is now working as a high school football coach.

ED GODDARD: The first great quarterback in WSU history, Ed Goddard was an All-American in each of his three varsity seasons playing with the Cougars. The "Escondido Express" was a triple-threat back, and received the largest percentage of All-America votes of any athlete as voted by fellow players. Goddard became WSU's first first-round draft pick and played professional football for the Cleveland Rams after being selected with the No. 2 pick, and also played professional baseball for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

JASON HANSON: One of the most honored Cougar athletes of all-time, Jason Hanson earned All-America status as both a kicker and punter during his four-year, record-setting career. He was a freshman All-American in his debut season, and went on to become WSU's first unanimous All-American as a sophomore. He was again named an All-American as a junior and senior, earning first-team honors as both a kicker and punter from The Sporting News in his final campaign. After booting 39 field goals of 40-plus yards, 20 field goals of 50-plus yards and a 62-yard field goal against UNLV – all of which set NCAA records – Hanson went on to become a second round draft choice by the Detroit Lions. During his All-Pro professional career Hanson has set numerous NFL records, earned two selections to the Pro Bowl and became the Lions' all-time leading scorer and is one of the top 10 leading scorers in NFL history.

JEROME HARRISON: Jerome Harrison put together quite arguably the greatest season by a WSU running back in school history as a senior. He led the nation in rushing with a school-record 1,900 yards en route to consensus All-America honors. Harrison put together a string of 16 consecutive 100-yard rushing games, breaking the Pac-10 record. His 16 touchdowns that season broke the WSU single-season record that had stood for nearly 20 years. Harrison owns three of the top five single-game rushing performances, and put together five games of 200-plus rushing yards, more than any other Cougar running back in school history. Following his collegiate career Harrison was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns, making a start in his rookie season.

MEL HEIN: Not just the greatest player in WSU history, Mel Hein is one of the greatest football players in the history of the game, earning mention on The Sporting News' 100 greatest players of all-time in 1999 despite more than 50 years passing since he played his last game. Hein was a charter member of both the NFL Hall of Fame and the College Football Hall of Fame, having his jersey retired by both WSU and the New York Giants. While playing with the Cougars Hein earned All-America recognition and led the team to the 1931 Rose Bowl. While playing professionally, Hein became the only offensive lineman to win the NFL's Most Valuable Player award. He was named to the NFL All-Time Team and was one of three centers named to the All-Century Team by TSN. An eight-time All-Pro, Hein won two NFL Championships with the Giants.

JASON HILL: The greatest scoring threat in WSU receiving history, Jason Hill amassed a Cougar-record 32 touchdown catches, the second-most all-time in Pac-10 history and breaking a 44-year-old school record. His 13 touchdowns in 2005 and 12 touchdowns in 2004 rank first and second on WSU's all-time single-season lists, respectively. Hill became the first receiver in school history to post two 1,000-yard seasons en route to 2,704 career yards, a mark that also broke a school record that had stood for 44 years. His 148 receptions were tied for second-most in WSU history. Following an All-American career, Hill was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers in the third round and became a starter in his second season with the team.

ORIN E. "BABE" HOLLINGBERY: Babe Hollingbery served as Washington State's head coach for 17 seasons (1926-42), compiling a win-loss record of 93-53-14 (.625), more victories than any coach in school history. Hollingbery developed many of the finest players in school history and led the Cougars to the Rose Bowl during the 1930 season. An outstanding athlete and coach in the San Francisco area for many years, Hollingbery is the father of the East-West Shrine Game. He served as the coach of the West Team for 19 years, compiling an 11-4-4 record. He served the classic for 45 years as coach and director of coach and player selection. Hollingbery was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1979.

RYAN LEAF: Not just one of the greatest quarterbacks in school history, Ryan Leaf is one of the greatest signal-callers in NCAA history. Following his junior season, Leaf finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting, was named to multiple All-America lists, received the Sammy Baugh Passer of the Year Award and was named Pac-10 Offensive Most Valuable Player. After ending WSU's 67-year Rose Bowl drought and setting Pac-10 records with 3,968 passing yards and 33 touchdown passes in 1997, he was taken with the second overall pick by the San Diego Chargers in the 1998 NFL Draft. During his time in Pullman, Leaf broke the WSU career passing touchdowns record that had stood for nearly 20 years, and completed his career ranked amongst the top four in virtually every major passing category.

KEITH LINCOLN: Keith Lincoln, the “Moose of the Palouse,” may be remembered as the Golden Boy of the San Diego Chargers in the 1960s, but before his professional career he was a triple-threat back that ran, passed and kicked for the Cougars. He set WSU’s career rushing and career punting records, racking up 1,501 yards on the ground and averaging 40.3 yards per punt, and was an All-West Coast selection at halfback in 1959. Lincoln then went on to play professionally, where he was the Most Valuable Athlete of the American Football League Championship game in 1963 and the Most Valuable Player of the AFL All-Star game following the 1963 season. He returned to Pullman following his playing days and served as director of WSU’s Alumni Association for many years.

KEITH MILLARD: To put it simply, Keith Millard is the most dominant defensive player in school history. An All-American, he set all 12 Cougar records for tackles-for-loss and sacks and became WSU’s first Morris Trophy honoree, given annually to the Pac-10’s top defensive linemen as voted on by fellow conference players. Prior to leaving WSU, Millard racked up 180 tackles including 39.5 TFLs and 21.5 sacks, setting single-game, single-season and career records in both statistical categories. He went on to the NFL after being selected with the No. 13 pick in the first round by the Minnesota Vikings and played for nine seasons. He was named NFL Defensive MVP in 1989 after recording a league-high 18 sacks, earned All-Pro status four times and played in two Pro Bowls. He is currently a member of the Oakland Raiders coaching staff.

RIEN LONG: Rien Long is one of the most dominant defensive tackle in Cougar history, winning the Outland Trophy following his junior season. The honor is given annually to the nation’s best interior lineman, and Long is the only WSU player in school history to win the award. His junior season he racked up 21.5 tackles-for-loss, second-most all-time in a single season in WSU history, and 13 sacks, fourth-most all-time in a WSU single season. Despite leaving school after his junior campaign, he still ranked in the career top 10 in both sacks (17) and TFLs (35.5). Following his All-American year, Long was selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Tennessee Titans and became a starter for the team.

DeWAYNE PATTERSON: DeWayne Patterson spent his entire Cougar career in the opponent’s backfield, racking up 52.5 tackles-for-loss, 342.5 TFL yards, 37.5 sacks and 244 sack yards – all of which are schools records. He garnered All-America status as a senior and was named first-team All-Pac-10 following both his junior and senior seasons. His 22 TFLs and 17 sacks in 1993 each set Cougar single-season records, and his five TFLs against Pacific in 1993 and four sacks against both Oregon in 1993 and UCLA in 1994 were all tied for WSU’s single-game records. After helping to lead WSU to a defensive 10-3 victory in the Alamo Bowl, Patterson signed with the Seattle Seahawks and went on to play three seasons with Calgary in the Canadian Football League.

DAN LYNCH: A four-year letterwinner at Washington State, Dan Lynch anchored WSU’s offensive line in the early 1980s and was one of the greatest offensive linemen in the Pac-10 during his era. Lynch earned unanimous first-team All-Pac-10 selections as both a junior and senior, and was one of only three Cougar offensive linemen to garner Associated Press All-America First Team honors. Following his senior campaign he was also a unanimous recipient of the Morris Trophy, given to the league’s top offensive lineman, and is the only Cougar to win the award on offense.

GEORGE REED: An outstanding fullback on WSU’s 1959, 1961 and 1962 teams, George Reed went on to play 13 seasons in the Canadian Football League after a serious leg injury nearly derailed his playing career. While with the Saskatchewan Roughriders he racked up 16,166 rushing yards and 134 rushing touchdowns, which was at the time more yards and touchdowns than any professional football player in any professional league’s history. He won the 1966 Grey Cup Championship with the Roughriders, was named a CFL All-Star nine times and earned CFL Most Outstanding Player honors in 1965. Often mentioned as one of the greatest running backs in CFL history, Reed’s jersey was retired by the Roughriders and he was inducted into the CFL Hall of Fame in 1979.

RUEBEN MAYES: By the end of his distinguished four-year Cougar career Rueben Mayes held a number of WSU, Pac-10 and NCAA rushing records, including a single-game total of 357 yards against Oregon. Twice he was honored as the Pac-10’s outstanding offensive athlete, and he finished in the Heisman Trophy top 10 as a junior in 1984. His career totals of 3,519 rushing yards, 23 rushing touchdowns, 24 total touchdowns, 13 100-yard rushing games and 4,418 all-purpose yards all set WSU records, and in 2008 his All-American career culminating in his being voted into the College Football Hall of Fame. Following his collegiate career, Mayes went on to star in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints, who drafted him in the third round. He won Rookie of the Year honors in his debut season and also made two Pro Bowls.

TIMM ROSENBACH: Of all the great Cougar quarterbacks to come through Pullman over the years, none was more accurate than All-American Timm Rosenbach, whose .601 career completion percentage is still the WSU standard. Rosenbach ranked second in every other major career passing category before leaving school for the NFL, including 789 attempts, 474 completions, 5,995 yards and 39 touchdowns. After leading the nation in pass efficiency his junior year, Rosenbach finished seventh in Heisman Trophy voting and was the first overall pick in the NFL’s 1989 Supplemental Draft. In 1990 he played every offensive snap for the Phoenix Cardinals.

MARK RYPIEN: The nation's top prep quarterback prospect didn't disappoint at WSU. Mark Rypien was a record-setting, two-time All-American quarterback for the Cougars before moving on to the NFL. By the end of his WSU career Rypien ranked amongst the top three in every major career passing category with 613 attempts, 326 completions, 4,573 passing yards, a completion percentage of .532 and 28 touchdowns. After being drafted in the sixth round by the Washington Redskins in 1986, he became a fixture at quarterback, leading the team to Super Bowl XXVI and earning Most Valuable Player honors in the championship game. Rypien also earned to invitations to the Pro Bowl during his NFL career.

MARCUS TRUFANT: Quite possibly the greatest cornerback in school history, Marcus Trufant was a four-year starter for the Cougars and did not allow a touchdown pass in his final two seasons. An All-America selection following his senior campaign, Trufant left WSU ranking sixth on the all-time interceptions list. After helping to lead the Cougars to the 2003 Rose Bowl, Trufant was selected with the No. 11 pick in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks and was named to the Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie Team in his debut season. In his years of professional football, Trufant has already played in a Super Bowl (XL) and was elected to the Pro Bowl following the 2007 season.

JACK THOMPSON: The "Throwin' Samoan" is one of only two football players in school history to have his jersey retired. Arguably the greatest quarterback in a long line of Cougar standouts, Jack Thompson completed his WSU career as the most prolific passer in NCAA history. After becoming the first junior in NCAA history to surpass 5,000 career passing yards, he set the national record with 7,818 career yards following his senior season. Thompson's 7,698 yards of total offense were the third-most in NCAA history when he moved on to the NFL. Thompson was named All-America and finished in the top 10 in Heisman Trophy voting before becoming the third selection in the 1978 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. He played in Cincinnati for three seasons, and played with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for two more.

MIKE UTLEY: When Mike Utley completed his distinguished Cougar career, he departed as the most highly decorated gridiron star in WSU history. The offensive lineman started 42 of his 45 games played, and was named to six All-America first teams. He helped lead the Cougars to an Aloha Bowl victory over Houston in 1988, and then propelled himself to the NFL after being drafted in the third round by the Detroit Lions. He started at right guard in each of his first three professional seasons, but suffered a severe fracture of his sixth and seventh vertebrae in a game against the Los Angeles Rams, ending his football career.

LAMONT THOMPSON: One of the most feared safeties in the history of the Pac-10, Lamont Thompson intercepted more passes than any player in league history during his four-year career as a starter for the Cougars. Thompson was the greatest ball-hawk in to ever don a WSU uniform, setting a WSU record and tying a Pac-10 record with four interceptions in a single game. He also owns the school single-season mark with 10 interceptions in 2001, and set both conference and school records with 24 career interceptions. After an All-American collegiate career, Thompson was selected in the second round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals and went on to become a starter with the Tennessee Titans for three seasons.

CLANCY WILLIAMS: A first-team All-American in 1964, Clancy Williams led the Cougars in rushing, scoring, total offense, pass receptions, punt returns and kickoff returns. Williams completed his career ranked second on WSU's all-time list in rushing (1,456) and kickoff returns (719). He went on to play cornerback for the Los Angeles Rams for eight seasons after being the ninth overall selection in the first round of the 1965 NFL Draft. He played his entire NFL career with the Rams, leading the team in interceptions three times and completing his career ranked second on the team's all-time list in the statistical category with 28.

THE CHIEFS

Four of Washington State's early football coaches were graduates of the Carlisle Indian School in Pennsylvania. They were (far left) Frank Shively (1898-99, 1-1-1 record), (second from left) William "Lone Star" Dietz (1915-17, 17-2-1 record, including Rose Bowl team from 1915), (second from right) Gus Welch (1919-22, 16-10-1 record) and (far right) A. A. Exendine (1923-25, 6-13-4 record).

Mel Hein, arguably WSU's best football player of all time, has been winning awards since his playing days in the late 1920s. Even after his death in 1992, Hein was collecting awards and recognition.

Hein was an All-American and member of WSU's 1931 Rose Bowl team. He then went on to an amazing career with the New York Giants. Despite having not played since 1945 and obviously not seen by most of today's players, coaches and fans, Hein's legend status lives on.

The latest honor accorded Hein was his selection to the Walter Camp Foundation's All-Century College Football Team. The 20th century was just drawing to a close in December, 1999, when the who's who of college football players was announced and there was Hein's name as one of the three greatest centers to ever play the college game.

In addition, Hein has also been picked to professional football's all-time team and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1927-31 Mel Hein

7

Mel Hein, a consensus pick as the greatest center in football, was the first player to have his jersey retired at Washington State University.

Hein wore his famous No. 7 throughout his collegiate and professional career.

An All-America pick following the 1930 season, Hein helped lead the Cougars to an undefeated record that year and into the 1931 Rose Bowl Game against Alabama. WSU lost that game 24-0, but WSU's record in Hein's three varsity seasons was 26-6.

Besides his All-America selection his senior year, he was an All-West Coast pick after having been named to the All-Coast second team as a junior.

He was also a basketball player, starting at center his junior year for coach Jack Friel's club.

From WSU it was on to the New York Giants, where he played 15 years. Hein was inducted as a charter member into the National Football League Hall of Fame. He was also inducted as a charter member into the Washington State University Athletic Hall of Fame on Oct. 20, 1978, and is a member of the Washington State Sports Hall of Fame and the Inland Empire Sports Hall of Fame.

Eight times an All-Pro center, he was the NFL's most valuable player in 1938. He coached four years, both as head coach and as an assistant.

From 1966-67 he was the supervisor of officials for the American Football League.

In 1969, Hein was voted one of the 11 all-time best professional and collegiate football players in a vote conducted in conjunction with professional football's Centennial celebration.

The Washington State University Board of Regents honored Hein May 14, 1983, with its Distinguished Alumnus Award, the highest award bestowed a Cougar alum.

Hein is also a charter member of The College Hall of Fame, one of three Cougars honored by the National Football Foundation.

In 1999, he was one of three centers named to The Sporting News All-Century team for college players.

1974-78 Jack Thompson

14

Jack Thompson finished his career in 1978 as the most prolific passer in the history of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

Thompson, who was granted a fifth year after missing the 1974 campaign with a knee injury, passed for 7,818 yards for a NCAA record. He became the fourth quarterback in NCAA history to pass for 2,000 yards or more in three seasons.

He established Pacific-10 Conference and WSU records for passes attempted (1,086), passes completed (601) and total plays (1,345). He tied the conference mark for touchdown passes (53) and touchdowns responsible for (63).

Other NCAA career accomplishments by Thompson placed him third in total offense with 7,698 yards, third in pass completions with 601 and tied for fifth with his 53 TD tosses. He became the first junior in the history of the conference to surpass the 5,000 yard barrier in passing.

In 1976 he set a conference record for passing yards with 2,762, completions (208) and touchdown passes (20). He was an All-Pac-8 First Team pick as voted by the coaches, All-West Coast UPI First Team and a second-team AP pick, All-America honorable mention by AP and two-time Pac-8 Player of the Week.

In 1977 he was named to the All-Pac-8, AP and UPI All-West Coast second teams and was named an AP All-America honorable mention.

Prior to the 1978 campaign he was a Playboy All-America pick and appeared on the cover of Street & Smith Magazine. He was All-Pac-10 First Team and UPI All-West Coast Second Team. Following the season he played in the Challenge Bowl and was named MVP, and played in the Hula Bowl. The National Football League scouts voted him to The Sporting News All-America First Team.

Thompson was the third player selected in the 1979 NFL draft, going to the Cincinnati Bengals. He later played for Tampa Bay.

He was only the second football player and the third athlete in WSU history to have his jersey retired.

The Washington State University Hall-of-Fame was begun in 1978. WSU President Dr. Glenn Terrell (since retired) called for the formation of the Athletic Hall-of-Fame.

It is comprised of 120 former WSU athletes, coaches, administrators and special contributors to Cougar athletics. Nominations are accepted from the general public each spring, and the WSU Athletic Hall-of-Fame Council votes to determine membership.

Members of the WSU Athletic Hall-of-Fame, the year they were inducted and the category in which they were inducted are listed below.

THE BROADCAST TEAM

Hall of fame announcer Bob Robertson Sr. is in his 43rd season calling Cougar football action. When Cougar fans gather and talk about Saturday afternoons in the fall on the Palouse, football and Robertson just naturally become part of the conversation.

The long-time Cougar broadcaster began his association with WSU football in 1964 and with the exception of a three-year period in 1969-71, he's been calling the Cougar action ever since.

Robertson's peers have selected him Washington Sportscaster of the Year 12 times, validating what Cougar fans have known for years - he is simply the best. In 1995 he was named the State Broadcaster of the Year.

Robertson was inducted into both the WSU Athletic Hall of Fame and the Inland Empire Hall of Fame in 2001-02, and in August 2004 received the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award at ceremonies held at the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind. At the same time he became the first broadcaster west of the Mississippi to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame - broadcaster division. He is also a member of the Pierce County Hall of Fame.

Bob's association with WSU runs deeper than just football broadcasts. For 23 years he was the voice of Cougar Basketball, including several NCAA tournament teams. In 1978-79, he was named WSU's Dad of the Year and he also worked with the WSU Cougar Club on the west side in the 1980's.

Robertson was born in Fullerton, Calif., during spring training of the Seattle Indians of the Pacific Coast League. At the time his father was a player for the Seattle club.

After graduating from Blaine (Wash.) High School, he attended Western Washington University in Bellingham, where he launched his broadcasting career. His first broadcasting exposure came as a young actor for the Canadian Broadcasting Company in Vancouver, B.C., then bloomed while attending college.

In 1948 Robertson signed to play professional baseball, but a year later gave up playing to become the voice of the Wenatchee Chiefs of the Western International League, his first full-time broadcasting opportunity.

Among his many accomplishments, Robertson has:

- Spent 25 years calling Pacific Coast League baseball in Seattle and Tacoma;
- Broadcast professional soccer in Seattle, Tacoma and Portland; he was Washington's Soccer Man of the Year in 1983;
- Broadcast hockey, boxing, wrestling and hydroplane races
- Had his "cup of coffee" in major league baseball, broadcasting some Seattle Mariner games in the late 1990's
- Served as television sports anchor in the Seattle market for 25 years, including time with KSTW (called KTNT 1956-70, then KSTW 1976-83) and KMO (he helped put them on the air);
- Currently voice of the Spokane Indians baseball team and Pacific Lutheran University basketball;
- Served as the television voice of Notre Dame football and basketball for two years in the 1950's.

This fall Bob and wife Joanne celebrate their 58th anniversary. They have four children, Hugh, Janna, John and Rebecca, and seven grandchildren. The Robertsons have resided in Tacoma since 1950, with the exception of his stint with Notre Dame.

As much as Robertson is part of Cougar Football Saturday, so is his closing broadcast signature, "Always be a good sport, be a good sport all ways."

Joining Robertson in the broadcast booth for the ninth year is a name familiar very to Cougar football fans, former Cougar head coach (1978-86) Jim Walden. Walden is the third-winningest coach in WSU football history.

Known for his wit and charm, Walden later coached the Iowa State, then in 1995 moved into the broadcasting profession, both in radio and TV, while continuing to live in Iowa.

Walden, who beat every team in the Pacific-10 Conference while at WSU, is perhaps best remembered for resurrecting a struggling program that had three coaches in three years, and for guiding WSU to the 1981 Holiday Bowl, the Cougars' first bowl appearance in 51 years. Walden, inducted into the WSU Athletic Hall of Fame in the fall of 2009, now lives in Harrison, Idaho.

Patrolling the sidelines and locker rooms is KXLY's Bud Nameck, who also handles the network's play-by-play duties during the Cougar men's basketball season. Nameck served as sports director for at KXLY for 13 years, 1982-95, and was the voice of Cougar football for FOX Sports Northwest for 14 years, 1988-2001.

He is currently the Cougars Sports Radio Network Director and resides in Spokane with his wife Diane and daughter Kelsey.

THE COUGAR SPORTS RADIO NETWORK

Cougar football games are broadcast live on the radio throughout the Pacific Northwest via The Cougar Sports Radio Network. The 25-station football network - one of the largest in the Pac-10 - reaches from British Columbia to Oregon and can be heard worldwide via the internet and XM Satellite radio. The men's basketball network includes 16 stations.

The KXLY Broadcast Group produces The Cougar Sports Network, which also features radio coverage of WSU men's basketball, baseball, women's basketball and women's volleyball, and 30-minute coaches show in the fall and winter seasons.

Cougar football broadcasts begin an hour before kickoff, carry through the game and conclude with post-game interviews with players and coaches and a live call-in talk show.

KXLY, which began partnership with the Cougars in 2001 and now runs through 2012, also publishes Crimson & Gray Magazine, the official game-day publication of Cougar football.

C O N F E R E N C E OF CHAMPIONS

Washington State University is a member of the nation's leading athletic entity—the Pacific-10 Conference.

Joining July 1, 1962, WSU was the first member to be admitted to the original membership of five. The Pacific-8 Conference was organized July 1, 1959, and originally called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. The original membership included the University of California, USC, Stanford University, the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) and the University of Washington.

The University of Oregon and Oregon State University joined the Pac-8 July 1, 1964.

The association's members formally adopted the name, Pacific-8 Conference, Sept. 3, 1968.

The Pac-8 officially became the Pacific-10 Conference with the addition of the University of Arizona and Arizona State University on July 1, 1978.

THE COUGAR MASCOT

In 1927, Governor Roland Hartley presented a cougar cub to the students of the University. This first cougar mascot was called Butch, to honor Herbert "Butch" Meeker of Spokane, a WSU football star at the time. Butch II was presented to the students by Gov. Clarence D. Martin in 1938. Butch III and IV were twin cubs, presented by Gov. Arthur B. Langlie in 1942. Gov. Langlie presented Butch V in 1955. Butch VI, the last live mascot on campus, died in the summer of 1978. He had been presented to WSU by Gov. Albert Rosellini in 1964 from the Seattle Zoo. Today, WSU students in a "Butch the Cougar" mascot costume rally school spirit at athletic contests, including football games and other events.

THE COUGAR NICKNAME

Washington State University students officially adopted the nickname "Cougars" October 28, 1919, three days after a reference to "cougars" was used in a football game newspaper story following WSU's upset 14-0 win at California. In the story, a California Bay Area writer said the Pacific Northwest team "played like cougars" in upsetting the Bears.

THE COUGAR HEAD LOGO

In 1936, student Randall Johnson, class of 1938, designed the original Cougar head logo for Washington State College. It was used on the side of college trucks. In 1959, when the institution changed from college to university, he re-created the logo to incorporate the "U" in place of the "C." In 2002, WSU developed a new graphic identity. It employs the Cougar head within a crest, an internationally recognized symbol for higher education.

THE VICTORY BELL

In the late 1800s, the victory bell was mounted on the ground in the center of campus; it rang to start and dismiss classes in those early days. Today, it is located at the Lewis Alumni Centre. A member of the Student Alumni Connection rings it after WSU football wins.

Elson S. Floyd

President

Elson S. Floyd is Washington State University's 10th president. He took office in May of 2007 after serving as president of the four-campus University of Missouri System during 2002-2007.

"Excellence, quality, and accountability" are keystones to his administration leading WSU. He puts high priority on WSU being a research leader and having a global presence. Furthermore, he endorses diversity of thought, opinion, perspective, viewpoints, race and ethnicity as characteristics of a world-class university.

Floyd served as president of Western Michigan University from 1999 to 2002, and held several administrative positions at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, including deanships in student affairs and the College of Arts and Sciences.

Previously, he spent two years as executive director of the state of Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board, the agency responsible for statewide coordination, planning, oversight, policy analysis and student financial aid programs for Washington's post-secondary education system. From 1990 to 1993, he served as vice president for student services, vice president for administration and executive vice president at Eastern Washington University.

He began his career in 1978 at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he held deanships in the Division of Student Affairs, the General College and the College of Arts and Sciences. From 1988 to 1990, he was assistant vice president for student services for the UNC system office, where he helped develop and articulate student affairs and academic affairs policy for the 16-campus university system.

A native of Henderson, N.C., Floyd holds a bachelor of arts degree in political science and speech, a master of education degree in adult education, and a doctor of philosophy degree in higher and adult education, all from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Floyd and his wife, Carmento Floyd, have two grown children.

Anne McCoy

Senior Associate Director of Athletics/SWA

Veteran intercollegiate athletics administrator Anne McCoy has served Washington State University since 2001 and was promoted from associate director to senior associate director of athletics in 2004. Her appointment to senior woman administrator came in the summer of 2007.

In her capacity as senior associate director of athletics, she is charged with overseeing all aspects of WSU's athletic budget and supervises several areas with the department including the business office, equipment, computer and football operations, and event management and facility operations. She also serves as a liaison for men's and women's basketball.

McCoy serves on several Pacific-10 Conference committees, including the Senior Woman Administrator and Television Committees and on the Budget and Finance, Compliance and Enforcement, Diversity Leadership Initiative Review, Awards Review, Medical Care, and Student-Athlete Advisory committees. She also been appointed to the NCAA Women's Rowing Committee and is a past vice president of the Pac-10 Conference.

A Wisconsin native, McCoy earned a bachelor's degree in sports management in 1989 from the University of Massachusetts. While an undergraduate, she worked for the Pittsburgh Penguins professional hockey organization, expanding the club's season ticket base. McCoy also served an internship as the assistant athletic business manager at the University of Connecticut, and was instrumental in designing and implementing a comprehensive computerized budget-tracking system.

McCoy served in several capacities at the University of Maine from 1989-1995, lastly as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator. At Maine, she supervised men's basketball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's swimming and softball in addition to the athletic business office, ticket office, retail store and cheerleading staff and operations. She took a similar administrative positive at St. Louis University from 1995-96.

In 1996, McCoy moved west, joining the staff at Portland State University as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator, and was promoted to senior associate director of athletics in 1998. At PSU, she managed all internal staff and the daily operations of the department, representing the director of athletics as needed. McCoy also supervised men's and women's golf, cross country/track and field, and women's volleyball, soccer, tennis and softball.

McCoy and her husband Brian have two children, daughter Taylor and son Jake.

Jim Sterk

Director of Athletics

Washington native James M. Sterk was appointed Washington State University's director of athletics in June of 2000. In his nine years, Sterk has seen unprecedented growth and success by the Cougars' 17 intercollegiate teams and 450 individuals who compete for WSU annually.

On the academic front, WSU earned 114 selections to Pacific-10 Conference All-Academic teams in 2007-08. That figure represented the most student-athletes to earn such an honor during an academic year in school history. All student-athletes maintained a 3.01 cumulative GPA in 2008-09 and for 10 consecutive semesters WSU student-athletes have averaged at least a 3.00 cumulative GPA.

On the field, Cougar Athletics has enjoyed extraordinary achievements. In the past three years, 12 sports have been represented in NCAA postseason play. Among the many highlights achieved by the programs are the men's basketball team three consecutive postseason appearances including back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament (2007 & 2008). The football program put together three consecutive 10-win seasons from 2001 to 2003 and the women's rowing program earned five NCAA Championship appearances including a fourth-place finish in 2006, the highest finish ever by a WSU women's team in NCAA postseason competition.

Facility improvements have also been among projects Sterk has tackled. Following the 2006 football season, the initial phases of a renovation to Martin Stadium, the home of Cougar football, began with Phases I and II which were completed in time for the 2008 football season. Completed in the fall of 2008 were a state-of-the-art rowing tank and a hydrotherapy complex to further meet the needs of student-athletes. In addition, plans are underway for an ambitious capital improvement plan that will enhance many other WSU athletic facilities.

A 1980 graduate of Western Washington University, Sterk received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. His professional career has included positions at North Carolina, Maine, Seattle Pacific, Tulane and Portland State, the latter as director of athletics for five years before joining the Cougar staff.

The foundation of Sterk's leadership plan is based on five areas: the student-athlete experience, resource acquisition, personnel, political dynamics, and facilities. All five areas have enjoyed growth in his first nine years at Washington State University.

Sterk currently is the chair of the Pac-10 Athletic Directors committee and has served on numerous Pacific-10 Conference committees during his tenure at WSU.

Ken Casavant

Faculty Athletics Representative

Professor Ken Casavant, a member of the Washington State University family since 1967, currently serves as WSU's Faculty Athletics Representative to the Pacific-10 Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association. He is a past president of the Pac-10 and most recently served on the NCAA Division I Management Council.

Casavant came to WSU as a graduate research assistant in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics. He was named an assistant professor in 1971, an associate professor in 1975 and a full professor in 1980.

In 2004, Casavant received the Shalin Excellence award for Leadership for the University, having had the honor several years earlier of giving the Distinguished Faculty Address, the University's oldest award and also receiving the Shalin Excellence in Public Service award for the University. In 1979, Casavant received the R.M. Wade award for outstanding teacher in the college of agriculture at WSU, and in 1990, he earned the distinguished WSU Faculty of the Year award. Casavant was elected vice-chair (1991-92) and chair (1992-93) of the WSU Faculty Senate and has been accorded the Distinguished Teacher award by the American Agricultural Economics Association. He was named Distinguished Scholar by the Western Agricultural Economics Association in 2003 for his nationally recognized work as a transportation economist.

During his tenure at WSU, Casavant has served as associate director for the Washington State Transportation Center (1984-87) and the interim Vice-Provost for Academic Affairs and interim Vice-Provost for Research (1998).

The North Dakota native is a 1965 graduate of North Dakota State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural economics. He received his master's degree from NDSU, followed by a Ph.D., from WSU in 1971.

Ken and his wife Dorothy have two grown daughters, Michele and Colette and one grandson, Raphael.

FOOTBALL*Paul Wulff, 2nd Year

Paul Wulff became WSU's 31st head football coach in December, 2007, when he returned to his alma mater after spending the previous eight years as head coach at Eastern Washington University. Wulff has assembled a 55-51 in his nine-year head coaching career, including three postseason appearances.

VOLLEYBALL*Andrew Palileo, 2nd Year

Dedicated to rebuilding the Cougar volleyball program back to national prominence, Andrew Palileo ended his first season at WSU with the team winning three of the final four matches in the Pac-10 schedule. The WSU volleyball coaching staff has tirelessly hit the recruiting trails and the results will soon be evident on the court.

SOCCER*Matt Potter, 7th Year

Matt Potter, in his seventh season, has led Washington State to five-straight winning seasons, an unprecedented feat for Cougar soccer since joining the Pacific-10 Conference. His 55 victories are a school record. Last season, he led the Cougars to their first postseason berth since 2002. He has coached 19 all-conference honorees and 72 Pac-10 All-Academic award recipients.

SWIMMING*Erica Quam, 8th Year

During her seven years at Washington State, three Erica Quam coached teams have scored points at the NCAA Championships. Last season, the Cougars sent three student-athletes to the NCAA Championships, a first for the program. Under her leadership, WSU swimmers have set 19 school records, and garnered 75 Pac-10 All-Academic honors, including 25 first team accolades.

MEN'S BASKETBALL*Ken Bone, 1st Year

The 17th head coach in Cougar Basketball history, Ken Bone brings 17 years of head coaching experience with him to the Palouse, including the last four at Portland State. A Washington native, Bone took PSU to consecutive NCAA Tournaments his last two seasons with the Vikings (2008 and 2009), marking the only appearances in school history.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL*June Daugherty, 3rd Year

June Daugherty, in her third season leading the Cougars, brought a wealth of experience in building winning programs. In her first season Daugherty brought in one of the nation's top-ranked recruiting classes and more than tripled home attendance. Last year she orchestrated one of the nation's top 30 turnarounds, measured in both wins and jump in RPI. Daugherty is looking to take her third different school to the NCAA Tournament.

MEN'S GOLF*Walt Williams, 12th Year

Since taking over the WSU men's and women's golf programs in 1998, Walt Williams' teams have re-written the record books and crowned two All-Americans. Both the men's and women's teams have competed in the NCAA West Regionals during his tenure. Williams is the winningest coach in school history, compiling a total of 27 team titles, including one in 2008-09.

WOMEN'S GOLF*Kelli Kamimura, 1st Year

Kelli Kamimura is in her first season as the head women's golf coach at WSU. A native of Burlington, Wash. (Sedro Woolley HS), she was also a two-time All-American during her collegiate playing days at Washington.

TENNIS*Lisa Hart, 7th Year

The Cougar tennis program, under the direction of seventh-year head coach Lisa Hart, has been nationally ranked each of the last six seasons and has recorded 14-plus wins in three of the last four years. In 2008 the Cougars reached the NCAA tournament for the first time since the 2002 season.

BASEBALL*Don Marbut, 6th Year

Don Marbut, is in his sixth year as WSU's head coach and seventh with the program. In 2009, he skipped the Cougars to their first NCAA postseason since 1990. He has mentored 14 Major League Baseball draft picks and led the Cougars to a national ranking in three of the last four seasons.

ROWING*Jane LaRiviere, 8th Year

Jane LaRiviere has led her teams to four NCAA Championships in her seven years at WSU, including twice in the last four seasons. In 2008 the Cougars finished eighth at the NCAA Championships, only bettered by her squad's fourth-place finish in 2006. LaRiviere was awarded Pac-10 and CRCA West Regional Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2006.

TRACK & FIELD/
CROSS COUNTRY*Rick Sloan, 16th Year

Rick Sloan is the dean of WSU coaches, having been with the program for 36 years, including the last 14 as head coach of both the men's and women's programs. He has directed 38 WSU athletes to NCAA Outdoor All-America status 67 times and mentored 29 Cougar athletes to NCAA Indoor All-America status 44 times.
